 Madi Erwin Assistant Director of Digital & Social Media

The Southeastern Conference provides a variety of media services during the Fall. Take advantage of the following:

• Weekly Coaches Teleconference - The SEC coaches are featured on a weekly teleconference every Wednesday during the regular season. Media representatives interested in participating in the teleconference should contact the SEC Media Relations office (205) 458-3000 for details.

• SEC Network - The SEC and ESPN have signed a 20-year agreement through 2034 to operate the multi-platform SEC Network, which airs content 24/7 and includes more than 1,000 live events in its programming schedule. Now in its 12th year, the SEC Network will air approximately 50 football games, over 175 men's and women's basketball games, 100 baseball games and events from across the SEC's 22 sports in 2026-27.

• SEC Championship Game - The 2026 SEC Champion will be crowned December 5 at Mercedes-Benz Stadium in Atlanta. The contest, airing at 4 p.m. EST on ABC, will feature the top two teams following the completion of the regular season.

• College Football Playoff - The 2026 season will mark the 13th College Football Playoff, which will determine the national champion for the NCAA DI Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS). Under the playoff system, 12 teams -- selected by a 13-member committee -- will play in an 11-game tournament, featuring four first round contests on campus sites on Dec. 18-19 and four quarterfinals at bowl sites on Dec. 30-Jan. 1. The remaining four teams will play in semifinals at the Orange (Jan. 14) and Sugar (Jan. 15) Bowls before playing in the CFP National Championship Game on Jan. 25 in Las Vegas, Nevada.

Bulldog fans can follow their favorite team throughout the 2026 season on the Georgia Bulldog Radio Network Powered by Georgia Power from Learfield, which will feature one of the nation's best-known flagship stations, an affiliate list that ranks among the country's largest, and production supplied by the premier college sports marketing and radio production company in America.

Learfield provides radio network production for more than 50 major college athletic programs in the SEC and other prominent conferences. Day-to-day management of the network will be overseen through a joint partnership between Learfield College, which has handled the sales and marketing of Bulldog sports for the past 12 years, and JMI Sports. The network flagship is Atlanta's News/Talk WSB 750 AM and 95.5 FM. Additionally, every SEC football game will be carried live on Sirius XM Radio as part of a broadcast & marketing agreement between the SEC and the satellite radio provider.

Jeff Dantzler

On April 26, 2026, Jeff Dantzler was announced as the new play-by-play radio announcer for the Georgia Bulldog football team. The Statesboro native also serves as the play-by-play announcer for the Georgia baseball and women's basketball programs, and is also the Vice Chairman for the Georgia Public Telecommunications Commission.

Dantzler has called Bulldog baseball games since 1995, teaming up with David Johnston for the last 27 years, while also acting as the voice behind the mic for the Lady Bulldogs since the 1993-94 season. In this span, Dantzler has been a part of five College World Series appearances with baseball and a trio of trips to the Final Four on the hardwood. Dantzler has been a weekend staple on the radio, hosting football's pre and postgame shows and the Sunday Bulldog Brunch, as well as emceeing the UGA Circle of Honor inductions and Governor Brian Kemp's inauguration.

"I want to thank President Morehead, Josh Brooks, Kirby Smart, Georgia Athletics and Georgia Bulldogs Sports Marketing for this tremendous honor," said Dantzler. "As a young kid growing up in Statesboro, loving the University of Georgia, this is a dream come true."

Dantzler was married to the former Emily Edwards in July of 2018. After a courageous fight against cancer, she passed away in April of 2025. He resides in Athens with his two dogs, Albus and Hermie.

Jon Stinchcomb

Also announced earlier this year and sitting opposite of Dantzler in the radio booth, Georgia football legend Jon Stinchcomb will serve as the new color announcer.

Hailing from Lilburn, Ga., Stinchcomb donned the red and black from 1998-2002 where he earned back-to-back All-COSIDA Academic American status in 2001 and 2002 and was a Walter Camp/Playboy All-American in 2002. The All-SEC lineman was drafted by the New Orleans Saints in 2003, was named the team's Man of the Year nominee in 2008 and anchored a Super Bowl-winning offensive line in 2009. Stinchcomb was inducted into the UGA's Circle of Honor in 2012.

Stinchcomb resides in Lawrenceville with his wife, Ali, and two kids, Mason and Emily Gray.

Loran Smith

A native of Wrightsville, Ga., Smith continues his long association with the Georgia Network as co-host of the popular pre-game "Tailgate Show."

A former Bulldog MVP and track captain, Smith has had varied responsibilities with the UGA Athletic Association over the years, including assistant sports information director, business manager of athletics and executive director of the Georgia Bulldog Clubs.

Neil Williamson

A UGA graduate and veteran of more than 35 years of sports broadcasting in Georgia, Williamson co-hosts the Network's "Tailgate Show" with Loran Smith and also hosts halftime and post-game programs. "Hondo" has been part of the Bulldogs broadcast team since 1993. In his everyday job, Williamson is Director of Marketing for Cox Media Group's Atlanta radio cluster. He was inducted into the Friends of Georgia Radio Hall of Fame in 2022.

D.J. Shockley

Former Bulldog quarterback and Fox 5 Atlanta sports anchor D.J. Shockley joined the team for his first season as the sideline analyst in 2021. He is also featured regularly in the Napa Tailgate Show and leads his station's exclusive coverage of UGA Athletics.

The College Park native lettered three seasons at quarterback for the Bulldogs. He led Georgia to the SEC championship in his senior season of 2005, earning MVP honors in the title game. Shockley was drafted by the Atlanta Falcons, where he not only played but eventually got his start in broadcasting as host of his own feature show. He has had numerous roles on TV and radio, most recently working football broadcasts with ESPN and the SEC Network.

Kevin Butler & David Johnston

Bulldog All-America and College Football Hall of Fame kicker Kevin Butler and Georgia baseball color announcer David Johnston appear on the airwaves multiple times during each football weekend:

Starting four hours prior to kickoff, and airing live from the Tate Center Plaza at home games, the Dawg Talk Pre-Game Show sets the stage for every Bulldog football Saturday.

Additionally, Dantzler and Butler co-host the Bulldog Brunch, along with Eric Zeier, which airs live from Hilltop Grille in Athens each Sunday from 10:00 a.m. to noon after a Georgia football game. Johnston and Butler also host the postgame call-in show, recapping the completed game and offering an initial preview of next Saturday's action.

QUARTERBACKS

Redshirt senior Gunner Stockton returns behind center for his second full season as the Bulldogs starter. Last year, the Manning Award and Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award finalist earned All-SEC honors while directing Georgia to its second-straight SEC Championship victory and its second College Football Playoff quarterfinal in a row. Stockton approached 3,000 yards passing in 2025 while connecting for 24 touchdown passes with only five picks. The Tiger, Ga., native was also a threat on the ground after scampering for 462 yards and a team-leading 10 touchdowns. Redshirt sophomore Ryan Puglisi took snaps in seven games last year and will also be available at quarterback along with redshirt freshmen Ryan Montgomery and Hezekiah Millender. In addition to redshirt freshman Jake Bobo, who is the son of offensive coordinator Mike Bobo and transferred from Samford, freshman Bryson Beaver is another signal caller in the mix. Redshirt sophomore walk-on Colter Ginn is also back for his third season to provide additional depth.

RUNNING BACKS

The Bulldogs boast their top four rushers back from 2025, including QB Gunner Stockton. A Coaches All-SEC Third Team selection, junior Nate Frazier is back in the fold after nearing the 1,000-yard mark with 947 yards rushing and six scores last season. In addition, redshirt sophomore Chauncey Bowens also took more than 100 carries a year ago and finished with 526 yards and a half dozen touchdowns to earn Freshman All-SEC honors. The speedy Dwight Phillips Jr. and powerful Bo Walker will be back for their third and second seasons, respectively, along with senior transfer Dante Dowdell. Dowdell will be suiting up for his fourth team in four years after registering 560 yards on the ground and three scores with Kentucky in 2025. Another pair of new faces will be freshmen Jae Lamar and Nick Peal who bring highly successful high school careers with them to Athens.

TIGHT ENDS

Georgia football has many time-honored traditions, and one of the newest appears to be tight ends coach Todd Hartley signing the top class at his position year in and year out. He now has another room of talented targets and blockers. Senior Lawson Luckie is the top returner with 15 catches for 158 yards and four touchdowns, including three in the win against No. 5 Ole Miss. A pair of second-year tight ends, sophomore Elyiss Williams and redshirt freshman Ethan Barbour, both had a number of snaps to complement Luckie and Oscar Delp, who was taken in the third round of the 2026 NFL Draft by the New Orleans Saints. Williams played in seven games and finished with more than 100 yards receiving and a score while Barbour sustained a leg injury in game two and sat out the next 11 games before starting against the Rebels in the CFP Quarterfinal.

Running back Nate Frazier rushed for 947 yards and six touchdowns in 2025.

Quarterback Gunner Stockton earned All-SEC honors as he led Georgia to a second-consecutive SEC championship and College Football Playoff quarterfinal.

Expectations are also high for redshirt sophomore Jaden Reddell who was a steady performer in all 14 games last year. And as Hartley does, the Bulldogs signed three of the nation's top 15 players at the position for 2026. Kaiden Prothro, Lincoln Keyes and Brayden Fogle give the Bulldogs an arsenal for the coming contests.

WIDE RECEIVERS

Opposite from the running backs, Georgia will be developing fresh targets on the outside after its top five pass catchers from last season working to make NFL teams, including draft picks Zachariah Branch (Atlanta Falcons) and Colbie Young (Cincinnati Bengals). Senior London Humphreys had 18 catches for 276 yards and three touchdowns a year ago, highlighted by his game-tying catch at No. 15 Tennessee that set up the Bulldogs ninth-straight victory over the Vols. The Bulldogs have added junior transfer Isiah Canion in the offseason after he hauled in 33 catches for 480 yards and four scores for Georgia Tech last year. Another pair of third year receivers who have been in the system is Sacovie White-Helton and Jeremy Bell along with a talented corps of second year pass catchers in Talyn Taylor, Thomas Blackshear, CJ Wiley, Tyler J. Williams and Landon Roldan. Georgia provided depth at receiver by welcoming in freshmen Craig Dandridge Jr., Dallas Dickerson, Ryan Mosley and Tre Shields.

OFFENSIVE LINEMAN

The Bulldog offensive line will be led by Phil Rauscher this season after Stacy Searels moved into an analyst role. The left side of last year's offensive line has left to pursue their NFL dreams, including First Round pick Monroe Freeling with the Carolina Panthers. However, the Georgia front has an array of proven players still in uniform for the coming campaign. At center, redshirt senior Drew Bobo will return after starting 11 games last year. Following a leg injury, redshirt sophomore Malachi Toliver filled in and will also return in 2026. Dontrell Glover assumed the starting spot at right guard three games in and never relinquished the spot, earning Freshman All-America accolades. After four different tackles lined up on the right to start the first five games, the Bulldogs settled in on redshirt senior Earnest Greene III. Greene is expected to be available at left tackle as well with the departure of Freeling for the NFL. Another 2025 true freshman, Juan Gaston, had a total of four starts at two different spots and offers a unique blend of size (6-7, 360) and agility on the line. Junior Jahzare Jackson, redshirt sophomores Michael Uini and Daniel Calhoun heard their names called either on offense or on special teams and are back for another run. Newcomers for the unit include freshmen Ekene Ogboko (younger brother to DL Nnamdi Ogboko), Zach Lewis, Tyreek Jemison, Graham Houston and Zykie Helton along with transfer TyQuez Richardson (Alabama A&M).

Safety KJ Bolden earned All-America honors with 78 tackles and two interceptions.

DEFENSIVE LINEMAN

Redshirt juniors Jordan Hall, Xzavier McLeod and Josh Horton will be asked to lead this group as the Bulldog defense aims at becoming more disruptive following the loss of Second Round draft pick Christen Miller (New Orleans Saints). Sophomore Elijah Griffin was a bright spot for UGA's front in 2025 after earning Freshman All-America honors thanks to 22 stops, including 2.5 tackles for loss, and one forced fumble. Freshman newcomers include Carter Luckie (younger brother of TE Lawson Luckie), Valdin Sone, PJ Dean, AJ Lonon and Preston Carney. Also, redshirt sophomores Nnamdi Ogboko, Joseph Jonah-Ajonye and Justin Greene and sophomore JJ Hanne earned valuable snaps last season and are set to return this fall.

OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS

Senior Gabe Harris was lost to injury prior to Georgia's CFP matchup but in the first 13 games he piled up 26 stops and 6.5 tackles for loss. Harris is back this year alongside junior Quintavius Johnson, who finished with 35 stops, 6 tackles for loss and 2 sacks in 2025. Incoming Auburn transfer Amaris Williams finished with 14 tackles and two sacks for the Tigers last season but sustained a knee injury during the Bulldogs' spring practice. While the unit is hopeful that sophomore Darren Ikinagbon and redshirt freshmen Chase Linton and Isaiah Gibson can make similar jumps to Harris and Johnson last year, Georgia also ushers in North Oconee HS standout Khamari Brooks at the position.

INSIDE LINEBACKERS

In 2025, CJ Allen and senior Raylen Wilson formed a dynamic duo who combined for 162 tackles, 14.5 tackles for loss and six sacks in the middle. With Allen now with the Indianapolis Colts, Wilson returns as the leader to a unit that has no shortage of talent. Juniors Chris Cole and Justin Williams are a versatile pair of friends who will be expected to slow offenses across the field, along with fifth-year senior Terrell Foster. Sophomore Zayden Walker began to make a name for himself as a third down pass rusher last season and will be called upon for an expanded role in the coming year. In addition to the development of redshirt freshman Anthony Kruah, a trio of freshmen – Elijah Littlejohn, Nick Abrams II and Terrence Penick – will have a chance to earn a spot on the bus through both their play on defense and special teams as the season approaches.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

Second Team All-American safety KJ Bolden leads a defensive backfield into the coming season without one of their top playmakers from last season in Daylen Everette (Third Round pick with Pittsburgh Steelers) at DB. Bolden was the team's second-leading tackler last year with 78 stops and added a pair of picks. Redshirt sophomore Ellis Robinson IV returns with Bolden after tying for the SEC lead with four interceptions last year. In addition, redshirt sophomore Demello Jones enters his third year with a chance to line up opposite Robinson. The Bulldogs also brought in fifth-year senior transfer Gentry Williams (Oklahoma) and redshirt sophomore Braylon Conley (USC) to provide DB depth with redshirt freshman Jontae Gilbert and signees Jordan Smith, Caden Harris and Justice Fitzpatrick. At safety, redshirt senior Zion Branch returns for his second year at UGA alongside newcomer senior Khalil Barnes (Clemson) and others. Sophomore Rasean Dinkins filled in at the Star position as the season wore on last year and will again be expected to see the field in 2026. Redshirt junior Kyron Jones was a Bulldog starter last season until an injury sidelined him and he will return alongside other 2025 teammates in redshirt freshman Todd Robinson, Jaylan Morgan and Daniel Okonkwo. The defensive coaching staff also went on the recruiting trail and added freshmen Zech Fort, Tyriq Green and Blake Stewart.

SPECIALISTS

Special Teams Coordinator Kirk Benedict had the rare honor of coaching the Ray Guy Award winner (Brett Thorson, nation's top punter) and the Patrick Mannelly Award winner (Beau Gardner, nation's top snapper) last season. This season, Benedict welcomes back a three-time Lou Groza Award semifinalist, senior PK Peyton Woodring, as he works to establish the replacements for Thorson and Gardner. Redshirt sophomore Drew Miller had six punts in his only contest in 2025 as Thorson returned from an ACL injury and finished with a 48.0 average. Redshirt senior Henry Bates and redshirt junior Carter Horton are expected to back Miller up. At PK, redshirt freshman Connor Ferguson trained alongside Woodring last year and is joined by freshman Harran Zureikat this fall. Zureikat hails from Pittsburgh after earning the No. 2 national ranking for this year's kickers. A late signee in the class for the Bulldogs was Colton Dermer and he will join the competition with Will Snellings at snapper.

Place-kicker Peyton Woodring has been named a Lou Groza Award semifinalist in each of his three seasons.

2025 Bulldog Storylines

In 2026, the Bulldogs once again will be among the nation's top teams with designs on advancing to the College Football Playoff and challenging for another title. Georgia will feature six returning starters on offense including All-SEC quarterback Gunner Stockton and All-SEC tailbacks Nate Frazier and Chauncey Bowens. Eight starters return on defense including All-Americans KJ Bolden and Ellis Robinson IV and veteran starters in seniors Raylen Wilson, Jordan Hall and Gabe Harris Jr., plus junior Quintavius Johnson. Also, the special teams unit is headlined by senior All-SEC placekicker Peyton Woodring. In 2025, the Bulldogs were one of the youngest teams in the country with 54 percent of the roster consisting of players in their first or second season in Athens. The Bulldogs brought in only eight scholarship transfers, the fewest in the SEC.

Going For Three In A Row

*The Bulldogs won their 16th SEC title after a 28-7 rout of No. 9 Alabama in the SEC Championship Game. This marked the first time Georgia won two straight titles since it claimed three in a row from 1980-82.

*Georgia enters its 11th season under Kirby Smart, who has a record of 117-21 with two national titles and four SEC crowns in that span.

*Georgia's scoring defense in 2025 ranked 10th nationally at 17.6 ppg while the scoring offense averaged 32.1 points per game, good for 28th nationally. In Rushing Defense, the Bulldogs were fourth nationally at 81.5 yards per game.

*The Bulldogs have a new offensive line coach in Phil Rauscher who spent the 2025 season assisting Stacy Searels who had been the OL coach since 2002. Rauscher has 16 years of experience in college and the NFL. Searels remains on staff as an analyst. Due to injuries, Georgia started six different offensive line units in the first six games of 2025 and eight total. The unit returns several key starters including senior right tackle Earnest Greene III, centers Drew Bobo and Malachi Toliver, guard Dontrell Glover and guard/tackle Juan Gaston Jr. Additionally, Georgia has added a new OLB coach in Larry Knight.

*Six of Georgia's top seven pass catchers from 2025 have moved on to the NFL or graduation, and the Bulldogs will look to identify the next group of targets. The top returnees are senior wideout London Humphreys and senior tight end Lawson Luckie.

*Keep an eye on the competition in the secondary to fill senior Daylen Everette's spot as he started a team-best 41 games the past three seasons before departing for the NFL.

*Georgia owns the nation's longest active bowl streak at 29 seasons but has dropped its last two CFP quarterfinal matchups at the Sugar Bowl. Prior to these losses to Notre Dame and Ole Miss, Georgia had won seven straight CFP/bowl games. Overall, the Bulldogs have made 64 appearances in a bowl/CFP game with a 38-23-3 mark. The appearances and wins rank second in FBS.

"Hard To Kill" In 2025

*In 2025, Georgia went 7-1 in the SEC gauntlet, trailing early and/or late in seven of those contests. The Bulldogs rallied to beat No. 15 Tennessee and Auburn on the road for their ninth straight victory in those series. They outlasted No. 5 Ole Miss 43-35 in Athens and never had to punt. Georgia won its fifth straight over Florida in Jacksonville. Georgia erased an early 7-0 deficit at MSU with 38 unanswered points and eventually recorded a 41-21 decision for the program's 900th all-time win. Georgia used a 21-point fourth quarter to defeat No. 10 Texas 35-10 to close out the SEC regular season.

*Georgia blanked then No. 17 UA and AU in the second half while Kentucky's lone second half score came on a 23-yard drive with 1:51 left in the contest and the Bulldogs up 35-7. Trailing 35-26, Georgia outscored No. 5 OM 17-0 in the 4th quarter in that win. Against UF, Georgia fell behind 20-17 early in the 4th quarter, took the lead for good with 4:36 left and posted a pair of 4th-Down stops including one in the Red Zone as UF came in 22-for-23 there. *The only league contest in the regular season where Georgia led wire-to-wire was a 35-14 home win over UK while the only comeback that fell short came to then No. 17 UA 24-21 in Athens.

*The Bulldogs dominated No. 9 UA in the SEC Championship Game becoming the first team to shutout their opponent for the first three quarters of the title game and eventually won 28-7. UA was held to its second lowest rushing total in school history, finishing with minus three yards.

Simply The Best (Since 2021)

*Georgia owns the best record in the FBS since 2021 at 65-7. This run includes back-to-back CFP national titles (2021-22) and three SEC titles (2022, 2024-25). The next best is Ohio State at 59-10.

*Georgia and Ohio State are the only FBS schools to win 11+ games every season since 2021.

Playing Career

1995-98 Georgia
 Four-year letterman as a defensive back. First-team All-SEC in '98. Thirteen career interceptions. Four-time member of SEC Academic Honor Roll.
1991-93 Bainbridge (Ga.) HS
 Three-year letterman in football, basketball and baseball. First-team Class AAAA All-State as a senior. Sixteen career interceptions. Coached in football by his father, Sonny Smart. Inducted into Georgia High School Hall of Fame in 2025.

Kirby Smart has set the standard for sustained success as his record features the most wins in NCAA FBS history in the modern era for a coach in his first 10 seasons. Now entering his 11th season, Smart's record of 117-21 gives the Bulldogs an .848 winning percentage since 2016. Georgia's highlights include back-to-back College Football Playoff (CFP) National Championships (2021, 2022), a 2017 CFP title game appearance and Southeastern Conference Championships in 2017, 2022, 2024 and 2025. The 2025-26 Sugar Bowl CFP quarterfinal marked his ninth straight New Year's Six bowl game.

Over the last five years, Georgia has been the most dominant program, leading the FBS with a 65-7 record including two national titles and three SEC crowns. Overall, the Bulldogs lead the nation with 29 consecutive bowl game appearances. Smart has had nearly as many first round NFL draft picks (20) as losses in his tenure. Seventy-six Bulldogs have been drafted since 2016. The 2026 NFL Draft in April will see that Bulldog tally increase. Also, Georgia extended its national-leading streak of having at least one former player in the Super Bowl for the 25th consecutive year.

Georgia has enjoyed five straight seasons with at least 11 wins for the first time in school history. In the Smart era, the Bulldogs are 56-5 at home including 9-0 against top 10 opponents on Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium. They set a school record with a 33-game home winning streak from 2019-2025 and beat 10 ranked teams during that stretch.

In 2024, Smart became the fifth fastest coach to reach 100 career wins in FBS history, needing just 117 games to do it. The milestone win, a 30-15 victory, came over No. 1 Texas in Austin. Two months later in the SEC Championship Game in Atlanta, Georgia beat then No. 2 Texas again.

Smart returned to his alma mater in December of 2015, and in his second year, he had the Bulldogs playing for the national championship for the first time in three decades. The Bulldogs would end a 41-year championship drought in 2021. A year later, the Bulldogs would become the first and only team in the CFP era to repeat as national champions, going a perfect 15-0.

2025 – Georgia captured the program's 16th SEC title and fourth in Smart's tenure by dominating No. 9 Alabama 28-7. Georgia (2021-25) and Florida (1992-96) are the only teams to make a record five consecutive SEC Championship Games. The Bulldogs won at least 12 games for the sixth time under Smart, and he led Georgia to its fifth CFP appearance since 2017 and earned another first round bye as SEC Champions.

2024 – Georgia claimed the program's 15th SEC title and third during Smart's tenure by outlasting No. 2 Texas 22-19 in overtime. This marked the Bulldogs' second victory of the season over the Longhorns after taking down No. 1 UT in Austin 30-15 during the regular season. Registering his seventh season with at least 11 wins, Smart guided Georgia to its fourth CFP appearance since 2017 and earned a first round bye thanks to the Bulldogs' conference crown.

2023 - The Bulldogs completed an undefeated regular season, SEC Eastern Division title, and 13-1 overall record after defeating FSU, 63-3, in the 2023 Orange Bowl. The Bulldog defense ranked first in the SEC and 10th nationally in Total Defense (289.07 ypg) and Passing Defense (175.43 ypg), and fifth nationally in Scoring Defense (15.64 ppg). The Bulldog offense ranked first in the SEC in Total Offensive Plays (958), second in the SEC and fifth nationally in both Total Offense (496.5 ypg) and Scoring Offense (40.14), and second in the SEC in Passing Offense (305.29 ypg).

2022 - Georgia captured its second SEC championship of the Smart era in dominant fashion. The Bulldogs went 12-0 in the regular season and soundly defeated LSU in the SEC title game, earning a No. 1 seed in the final CFP rankings. The Bulldogs then came back to defeat No. 4 Ohio State in the Peach Bowl CFP semifinal.

2021 - His 2021 team became UGA's first national champion since 1980, the first since 1982 to go undefeated in the SEC regular season, a No. 1 national ranking by all the major polls and the first ever to win 14 games. It marked the fifth straight team to finish the regular season ranked in the top ten of the College Football Playoff rankings. The team set 21 school records, highlighted by the nation's top-ranked defense. The third-ranked Bulldogs defeated #2 Michigan, 34-11, in the Orange Bowl in Miami and then No. 1 Alabama, 33-18, in the championship game in Indianapolis. The senior class also set the mark for most career wins by going 45-8. After the regular season, Smart was named SEC Coach of the Year for the second time in five years. Georgia's championship season enjoyed a fitting exclamation mark at the 2022 NFL Draft. The Bulldogs set a Draft record with 15 players taken, including five defenders in the first round, led by the first overall selection, junior Travon Walker.

2020 - The 2020 Bulldogs became Smart's fourth consecutive team to earn a New Year's Six bowl game appearance. With a Peach Bowl victory over undefeated Cincinnati on Jan. 1, 2021, the Bulldog seniors tied the record for the most wins by one class in school history (44).

2019 - Smart's 2019 Bulldogs became the first team in school history to win 11 or more games for a third straight season. Georgia defeated three teams in the final Top 15 CFP ranking — Notre Dame, Florida, and Auburn — and finished fourth in the final polls. The Bulldogs capped their season with a dominant victory over Baylor in the Sugar Bowl game.

2018 - Georgia in 2018 posted an 11-1 regular season record, a second straight SEC Eastern Division title, and a ranking as high as number four in the CFP poll. Georgia landed in the Sugar Bowl on Jan. 1, 2019—the program's tenth all-time appearance in the New Orleans classic.

2017 - Smart's second season in 2017 was a special one, with an 11-1 regular-season record, an SEC title, a win over Oklahoma in the Rose Bowl Game (CFP semifinal) and advancement into the CFP National Championship Game. It was the first conference title since 2005 for the Red and Black.

Both Smart and his players reaped the bounty of their banner 2017 season. He was named George Munger National Coach of the Year by the Maxwell Football Club, SEC Coach of the Year by the Associated Press and SEC Coaches, and the Regional Coach of the Year by the AFCA. Roquan Smith earned first-team All-America honors and the Dick Butkus Award as the nation's top linebacker.

2016 - In Smart's first season leading the Bulldogs, Georgia made its 20th straight bowl appearance and posted four fourth-quarter comebacks, including wins over No. 8 Auburn and No. 22 UNC. He led the Bulldogs to an 8-5 final record, which included a victory over TCU in the Liberty Bowl.

As an Assistant Coach

When Smart officially came home to Georgia on Dec. 6, 2015, he had unfinished business as defensive coordinator at Alabama, which was still chasing a national title. He juggled both jobs for a month until Jan. 11, 2016, when the Crimson Tide won its fourth national championship in a 7-year span. Twelve hours later, he was at work in Athens, where he remains one of 15 head coaches at schools from Power 5 conferences that are coaching at their alma maters.

Smart had served on the Alabama staff the previous nine years, seven as defensive coordinator. During his tenure at Alabama, the Crimson Tide won three BCS National Championships, one CFP national title, three SEC crowns, six SEC Western Division titles, and was ranked in the nation's final top 10 the last eight years in a row.

During Smart's time at Alabama, he coached players at three different positions, in addition to his coordinating duties. He was recognized as the 2012 AFCA Assistant Coach of the Year and the 2009 Broyles Award winner as college football's top assistant. He also was a finalist for the award in 2015.

Prior to joining the Alabama staff in 2007, Smart spent the 2006 season as safeties coach with the NFL's Miami Dolphins. He served six years at the collegiate level as the running backs coach at Georgia (2005), defensive backs coach at LSU (2004), graduate assistant at Florida State (2002-03), defensive coordinator/linebackers coach (2001) and defensive backs coach (2000) at Valdosta State, and administrative assistant at Georgia (1999).

Smart was the running backs coach for Georgia's 2005 SEC Championship team. He coached Thomas Brown, Danny Ware and Gregg Lumpkin — all future NFL players. In 2004 at LSU, he tutored two NFL draft picks: Corey Webster (2nd round, New York Giants) and Travis Daniels (4th round, Miami).

They are the proud parents of twins Weston and Julia (born Feb. 8, 2008) and son Andrew (born May 25, 2012).

KIRK BENEDICT

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

Kirk Benedict was named the Bulldogs' Special Teams Coordinator in February 2024 after serving two years as the team's Special Teams Analyst.

Benedict's special teams unit shined as brightly as ever in his fourth year at Georgia en route to the team's second straight Southeastern Conference title and second consecutive trip to the College Football Playoff. Punter Brett Thorson collected the Bulldogs' second Ray Guy Award, snapper Beau Gardner clinched the first Patrick Mannelly Award in school history and kicker Peyton Woodring was named a semifinalist for the Lou Groza Award for the third time in his career. Thorson also earned Walter Camp and USA Today All-America First Team honors after averaging 45.5 yards on 2,094 punts, including forcing 25 fair catches and sending 15 balls that traveled 50 or more yards. Georgia finished fourth nationally in Net Punting (43.5) and gave up the country's fifth fewest punt return yards (18).

Gardner snapped on 72 of 73 Woodring's field goal attempts or PATs and all of Thorson's 52 punts and was named an AFCA First Team All-American. Woodring finished the year 17 for 19 on field goals and drilled three that traveled 50 or more yards. The All-SEC Second Team selection stands fifth on UGA's all-time list for PATs made (173) and seventh for points scored kicking (350).

Benedict's unit excelled throughout the Bulldogs' run to their 2024 SEC championship and their fourth appearance in the CFP since 2017. Thorson was named a Ray Guy Award finalist and USA Today Second Team All-American after averaging 47.6 yards (No. 4 nationally, No. 2 in UGA history) and forcing 14 fair catches. Georgia finished the year with a 43.5 Net Punting average (No. 5 nationally), giving up only 4.1 ypg. The Bulldogs' kicking game was just as impressive as Woodring drilled 91 percent of his field goals (No. 12 nationally, No. 2 in the SEC) after connecting on 21 of 23 tries, including a career-long 55 yarder in the win over No. 14 Clemson, to be named a Lou Groza semifinalist yet again.

Adding to the strength of Benedict's group was the fact that Georgia was the only team to have a 2024 semifinalist for the Ray Guy (Thorson), Lou Groza (Woodring) and Patrick Mannelly (Gardner) awards.

Benedict helped guide Woodring to his first Lou Groza Award semifinalist honor in 2023 as the true freshman connected on 21 of 25 field goals, including four of five from 40-49 yards, and all 71 PATs to set the Bulldog freshman record for most points kicking. His 134 points ranks third on Georgia's all-time PK scoring list for a season and he ranked sixth nationally in scoring at 9.6 ppg (top freshman, No. 3 PK overall). Thorson ended the Bulldogs' 13-1 season with a 43.8 average thanks to a performance that included 21 fair catches forced.

The Bulldogs punt return defense was also the only unit in the country to allow zero punt returns during 2023. Benedict is part of a coaching and support staff that led the 15-0 Bulldogs to the 2022 CFP National Championship with a 65-7 victory over TCU in the title game following a semifinal win over Ohio State in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl semifinal, 42-21.

In 2022, PK Jack Podlesny set the UGA record for most points scores in a season with 151 (26 FGs, 73 PATs). He was named the SEC Special Teams Player of the Year and First Team All-SEC by the AP and the SEC Coaches. Podlesny also set the record for most PATs in a CFP Championship Game with eight. Thorson also earned SEC All-Freshman Team honors.

Benedict joined Duke's coaching staff in June 2014 and worked with the Blue Devils until he arrived in Athens. He served as the Special Teams Coordinator and the Recruiting Coordinator while aiding the defensive staff.

Before his time as Special Teams Coordinator and Recruiting Coordinator at Duke, Benedict spent three seasons (2018-20) as an assistant coach mentoring the special teams unit and assisting on defense. In 2016 and 2017, he served as a graduate assistant coach while working primarily with the offense and the entire special teams operation. Prior to that, he served as an operations assistant working with the special teams units during the 2014 and 2015 seasons.

A native of Fairfax, Va., Benedict was a two-time All-Pioneer Football League fullback at Davidson College before graduating with a degree in political science in 2010. He was tabbed the program's offensive MVP as a senior in 2009.

Following his graduation from Davidson, Benedict was commissioned as an officer in the U.S. Army and graduated from the Army Reconnaissance Course in 2011. He was stationed in Germany from 2011-14, serving as a Reconnaissance Platoon Leader and Troop Executive Officer in the 2nd Cavalry Regiment. Benedict also served two deployments to Afghanistan (2011, 2013-14) before exiting the army at the rank of captain.

Benedict is married to the former Molly Battle and they have two daughters, Nora and Gwen, and a son, Kirk Jr.

MIKE BOBO

JOHN & ALICE SANDS OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR / QUARTERBACKS

A Georgia native who played quarterback for the Bulldogs from 1994-97 and was an on-field coach for the program from 2001-14, Mike Bobo began his second stint as UGA's Offensive Coordinator in February 2023 after serving a season in a Quality Control position for the Bulldogs' offense. The Thomasville, Ga., native is now a three-time Broyles Award finalist (2012, 2023, 2025).

Bobo's offense went to work in 2025 with a new starting quarterback, only one lineman who had more than five starts the season before and without three of the team's top four targets from 2024. His unit answered by averaging more than 32 points a game, topping five top 20 teams, winning its second straight Southeastern Conference title and advancing to its second consecutive College Football Playoff. Georgia finished in the top 10 nationally in both Total First Downs (339, second in the SEC and fifth nationally) and Completion Percentage (69 percent, second in the SEC and 10th nationally).

In 2024, Bobo crew helped Georgia capture its second SEC championship in three years. The Bulldogs ranked 12th nationally in Passing Offense (281.0 ypg, third in the SEC) to help knock off No. 1 Texas in Austin, the then No. 2 Longhorns in the SEC Championship Game and two other top 15 opponents. Thanks in part to his offense's 31.5 ppg, Georgia advanced to its fourth CFP appearance since 2017.

His 2023 offense was instrumental in the Bulldogs' undefeated regular season, SEC Eastern Division title and 13-1 overall record highlighted by a 63-3 win over No. 5 Florida State in the Capital One Orange Bowl. The Georgia offense ranked second in the SEC and fifth nationally in Total Offense (496.5 ypg) and Scoring Offense (40.1 ppg) and second in the SEC and 11th nationally in Passing Offense (305.3 ypg), helping him earn a second Broyles Award finalist accolade.

A veteran coach in the SEC, Bobo spent the 2021 season as offensive coordinator at Auburn. He worked in 2020 at South Carolina as OC and QBs coach after his five-year stint as head coach at Colorado State. At CSU, he guided the Rams to bowl games in each of his first three seasons, making him the lone coach in program history to accomplish that feat.

He is part of a coaching and support staff that led the 15-0 Bulldogs to the 2022 CFP National Championship with a 65-7 victory over TCU in the title game following a semifinal win over Ohio State in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl semifinal, 42-41.

The Georgia offense ranked among the top five nationally in both Scoring Offense (41.1 ppg) and Total Offense (501.1 ypg) in 2022. The 'Dogs also finished first nationally in Red Zone Offense (97.6 percent), First Downs (375), and Fourth Down Conversion Percentage (86.7 percent). Senior quarterback Stetson Bennett became the first player to be named the offensive Most Valuable Player in four CFP games, including twice in a CFP National Championship Game.

A veteran coach in the SEC, Bobo spent the 2021 season as offensive coordinator at Auburn. He worked in 2020 at South Carolina as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach after his five-year stint as head coach at Colorado State.

At Colorado State, he guided the Rams to bowl games in each of his first three seasons, making him the lone coach in program history to accomplish that feat. Bobo also joined Sonny Lubick as the only two to coach the Rams in multiple bowl games in their careers.

Overall, Bobo's teams left their marks on the offensive record book at CSU, as his squads own three of the top six marks for total offense in a season as well as the school record for most yards per game in a season (492.5, 2017). His Rams also posted three of the top seven scoring seasons in CSU history.

Bobo spent all but one of the first 22 years of his adult life at Georgia as a player or assistant coach. While in Athens as an undergraduate, he was a record-breaking starting quarterback and then spent 16 seasons working for the program.

Bobo's initial 14-year stint at Georgia as a full-time coach began in January 2001 when Mark Richt hired him as quarterbacks coach. Bobo had previously worked on the football staff in an administrative role in 1998, then as a graduate assistant in 1999.

Bobo coached the Bulldog quarterbacks through the 2006 season. He then added the duties of offensive coordinator in 2007 and stayed in that post until accepting the Colorado State head coaching position after the 2014 season.

Bobo played four seasons with head coach Kirby Smart from 1994-97 at Georgia and coached alongside him in 2005 when Smart was running backs coach for a year.

During his time at UGA, Bobo helped lead the Bulldogs to 135 victories, including two SEC championships, five SEC Eastern Division titles and eight bowl victories. He held the offensive coordinator spot for 92 games with the Bulldogs, scoring 30-plus points 57 times, 40-plus points 29 times and more than 50 points 13 times. In fact, four of the top five seasons for average yards per game in history for the Bulldogs came under Bobo, including the school record mark of 484.15 in 2012.

Bobo guided several talented quarterbacks at Georgia, including Aaron Murray, NFL All Pro and Pro Bowler Matthew Stafford and David Greene, along with All-Pro wide receiver A.J. Green, running back Todd Gurley and many others. In all, Bobo helped mold four first-round NFL draft choices at Georgia: Stafford (No. 1 in 2009), running back Knowshon Moreno (No. 12 in 2009), Green (No. 4 in 2011) and Gurley (No. 10 in 2015).

Prior to joining Richt's staff at Georgia, Bobo served one year as an assistant coach at Jacksonville State.

Bobo was a quarterback for the Bulldogs from 1994-97, throwing for 6,334 yards, the ninth-most all-time by a Georgia quarterback, and set several Georgia passing records. As a senior in 1997, he threw for 2,751 yards on 199 completions in 306 attempts and had 19 TD to just eight interceptions.

Bobo, a native of Thomasville, Ga., and his wife, Lainie, have five children, a son Drew, who is a Bulldog center; another son Jake, who joined Georgia's team in 2026 and who is a triplet with sisters Olivia and Ava Grace; and Kate. His father, George, was a long-time successful high school coach in Georgia.

JAMES COLEY

ASSISTANT COACH / WIDE RECEIVERS

James Coley was hired as the Georgia wide receiver's coach in February 2024. This marks Coley's second stint with the Bulldogs after serving on Kirby Smart's staff in a variety of roles on offense over Smart's first four years (2016-19).

Missing three out of the top four receivers from the previous season, Coley guided his 2025 receiving corps to 16 touchdowns and more than 2,100 yards as part of a passing offense that averaged 220 yards per contest. Led by Zachariah Branch, the Bulldog receivers helped first-year starter Gunner Stockton and the offense put up 32 points a game en route to UGA's second consecutive Southeastern Conference title and second straight trip to the College Football Playoff quarterfinals. Stockton finished with the second best Completion Percentage in school history at 69.7, which ranked ninth nationally in 2025.

Branch was one of the newcomers who made an immediate impact for Georgia's offense. The Coaches Second Team All-SEC selection topped a 32-year-old school record with 81 catches in a single season (former record of 76 was held by Brice Hunter from 1993) that went for 811 yards and six touchdowns. Branch's 5.79 receptions per game led the SEC and ranked 16th nationally. In addition, another pair of receivers in London Humphreys and Noah Thomas combined for 34 receptions as each averaged more than 15 yards per catch and finished with a combined seven touchdowns and more than 500 receiving yards.

Regarded as one of the elite recruiters in college football, Coley utilized a returning trio of receiving targets in 2024 to help Georgia capture its second SEC championship in three years. The Bulldogs ranked 12th nationally in Passing Offense (281.0 ypg, third in the league) to help knock off No. 1 Texas in Austin, the then No. 2 Longhorns in the SEC Championship Game and two other top 15 opponents. Thanks in part to his receiving corps helping the team average 31.5 ppg, Georgia advanced to its fourth CFP appearance since 2017.

Dominic Lovett ranked in the SEC's top 10 in 2024 with a team-leading 59 catches in 14 games (4.2 pg) in his final season. Lovett's 59 receptions tied for third for the Bulldogs all-time in a single season and tied for the lead for a senior receiver in UGA history (Terrence Edwards, 2002). Arian Smith's 17.0 yards per catch was also a top 10 statistic in the league after the senior finished with a team best 817 yards. Smith's 17.0 ypc was the best for a Georgia receiver since its national championship season in 2021.

Coley helped guide Texas A&M's offense from 2020 through the 2023 season. He served as the Aggies' tight ends coach in 2020-21 before taking on the role as co-offensive coordinator and receivers coach during the 2022-23 seasons.

Coley's final season in College Station in 2023 saw Texas A&M scoring 33.3 ppg as Arian Smith led the receiving attack with 53 catches for 795 yards. Smith finished as the only 2,000-yard receiver in SEC history to also rack up at least 250 rushing, punt return and kickoff return yards.

In 2022, Coley helped the receiver group compile 220 receptions for 2,633 yards and 18 touchdowns despite losing Smith four games into the season because of a season-ending injury. Coley also helped develop Freshman All-American receiver Evan Stewart. Stewart led the squad with 53 receptions and 649 yards to go along with two touchdown catches.

Coley and the Texas A&M offense highlighted their 2021 season by knocking off No. 1 Alabama in College Station 41-38, thanks in part to Coley's receiving corps. Smith hauled in a pair of crucial touchdowns, including a game-tying 25 yarder late in the fourth quarter.

During the 2020, Coley helped the Aggies post an impressive 9-1 record, including an 8-1 regular season mark against an all-SEC slate. A&M concluded the season with a lopsided victory over nationally ranked North Carolina in the program's first New Year's Six bowl game.

Coley started on UGA's coaching staff when Smart took over as head coach in 2016, spending the 2016 and 2017 seasons as receivers coach. He was named co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Georgia in 2018 and spent the next two seasons in that role.

Coley was part of a 2017 staff that led the Bulldogs to a record-tying 13 victories, first SEC championship since 2005, first appearance in the CFP, first appearance (and victory over Oklahoma) in the Rose Bowl CFP semifinal and first appearance in the CFP National Championship Game. Georgia's offense finished first in the SEC and ninth nationally in Rushing Offense (258.4 ypg), third in the SEC in Scoring Offense (35.4 ppg), fifth in Total Offense (435.3 ypg) and fourth nationally in Red Zone Offense (96 percent).

The Bulldogs followed up in 2018 with another SEC Eastern Division championship, 11-win season, and appearance in the Allstate Sugar Bowl. The Georgia offense finished first in the SEC in total Rushing Offense, Rushing Offense Per Game and second in the SEC in Total Offense, Touchdowns Scored and Scoring Offense.

Coley's two seasons of coaching Bulldog receivers produced a pair of NFL draft picks: Isaiah McKenzie (Denver) and Javon Wims (Chicago). In 2018, he coached sophomore quarterback Jake Fromm who posted the second-best Completion Percentage in school history at 67.3, which was 12th nationally, and second-best Passing Efficiency for a QB at 171.21, which was fifth nationally.

Coley served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Miami from 2013-15. Prior to joining the Miami staff, he held positions as offensive coordinator and tight ends coach (2010-12) and tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator (2008-09) at Florida State.

At FSU, Coley coached three first round draft picks in quarterbacks Christian Ponder, EJ Manuel and Jameis Winston. The Seminole offenses under Coley were high powered averaging 31.4 points per game in 2010, 30.6 in 2011 and 39.3 in 2012.

While at Miami, the Hurricane offense led the nation in "explosive plays" all three years and they produced two 1,000-yard rushers in Duke Johnson (1,652 yards in 2014) and Joe Yearly (1,002 in 2015). Coley coached 2014 freshman quarterback Brad Kaaya who earned Freshman All-America honors and broke the single season record for passing yards and TDs at Miami (3,198 yards, 26 TDs). Wide receiver Allen Hurns, who spent eight years in the NFL, broke the single season receiving record with 1,162 yards in 2013.

In 2014, his Miami offense averaged 430.3 yards per game and seven of Coley's offensive players earned All-ACC honors with Johnson and Shane McDermott receiving first team recognition. In addition, tight end Clive Walford earned AP All-America honors.

A native of Miami, Fla., he served as an offensive assistant with the Miami Dolphins in 2005-06. His coaching resume also included a stop at 2003 national champion Louisiana State University where he served as a graduate assistant coach.

Coley earned his bachelor's degree from Florida State in 1997 and his master's degree from LSU in 2004. He and his wife Kenia have two children – Madison and Brady.

JOSH CRAWFORD

RUN GAME COORDINATOR / RUNNING BACKS

Georgia football hired Josh Crawford as run game coordinator/running backs coach in February 2024.

In his second season with Georgia, Crawford guided Nate Frazier to the best season for a Bulldog running back since 2019 and helped the unit finish third in the Southeastern Conference with 2,550 yards on the ground. Frazier went for 947 (5.5 per carry) and scored six touchdowns to complement fellow second year back Chauncey Bowens, who had 526 yards (5.1 pc) and six scores. Both Fraizer and Bowens earned All-SEC honors for their performances.

Crawford also played a pivotal role in providing Georgia a versatile threat with Cash Jones after the senior had 20 catches for 195 yards and a touchdown. The Bulldogs handed off a league leading 580 times in 2025 as the offense managed 32 points a game en route to a 12-2 record, their second consecutive SEC title and their second trip in a row to the College Football Playoff quarterfinals.

Crawford's stable in the backfield during his first year with the Bulldogs included a 1-2 combo in first-year transfer Trevor Etienne and Frazier in 2024. Etienne earned All-SEC Third Team honors with more than 600 yards on the ground and a team-high nine touchdowns in only 10 games. Frazier, a Freshman All-SEC selection, went for a team-high 671 yards and eight scores. His contingent also combined for nearly 80 catches, 645 yards and four touchdowns through the air.

Crawford, who earned his master's degree from Georgia in 2012, was Georgia Tech's wide receivers coach for the 2023 season. Crawford's single season with the Yellow Jackets produced a Freshman All-American in Eric Singleton Jr. as he hauled in 48 catches for 714 yards and six touchdowns. Georgia Tech had 14 different players catch balls, including Malik Rutherford who finished with 46 catches and more than 500 yards receiving.

With a decade as one of the state of Georgia's most successful and respected high school coaches, Crawford entered into collegiate coaching in 2021 at Western Kentucky and helped guide one of college football's most prolific offenses for two seasons. He served as WKU's outside receivers coach in 2021 and was promoted to co-offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach in 2022. In his two seasons at WKU, Crawford's wideouts combined for 10,339 receiving yards and 94 touchdowns.

Prior to making the jump to the college ranks, Crawford established himself as one of the nation's top offensive coaches in the high school ranks, coaching at four of Georgia's most storied and successful programs – Colquitt County H.S., Valdosta H.S., Lee County H.S. and Greater Atlanta Christian (2010-12 – running backs/tight ends) as well as Jefferson County H.S. in Monticello, Fla.

During his 11 seasons in the high school ranks, Crawford helped lead three teams to Georgia 6A state championships and one national title. He coached six all-state receivers, four of which went on to play at the Power Five level.

Crawford played collegiately at Morehouse College in Atlanta, where he was a running back from 2004-06. He earned a bachelor's degree from Morehouse in 2007, a master's degree from both Georgia and an education specialist degree in coaching pedagogy from Valdosta State (2020).

He and his wife, Jessica, have two daughters – Ava Louise and Asha.

TODD HARTLEY

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH / TIGHT ENDS

Todd Hartley, a University of Georgia graduate who had also been a full-time staff member with the Bulldog football program in the past, was named tight ends coach on January 14, 2019, and added the Assistant Head Coach responsibilities in 2023.

Since coming to UGA, Hartley has helped to create quite a pipeline for tight ends. Brock Bowers headlines the list as the first back-to-back Mackey Award winner (2022-23) in history and just the third three-time First Team All-American in Georgia football history. The All-Pro tight end recently completed his second season with the Las Vegas Raiders and finished as a finalist for the 2024 League's Offensive Rookie of the Year after setting NFL records for most receptions in a season by a rookie (112) and most receiving yards in a season by a rookie tight end (1,194).

The NFL has benefited from Hartley's players who were drafted in six straight years (2019-24): Isaac Nauta (7th Rd., 224th pick) in 2019, Charlie Woerner (6th Rd., 190th pick) in 2020, Tré McKitty (3rd Rd., 97th pick) in 2021, John FitzPatrick (6th Rd., 213th pick) in 2022, Darnell Washington (3rd Rd., 93rd pick) in 2023 and Bowers (1st Rd., 13th pick) in 2024. In addition, Ben Yurosek was signed as a free agent in 2025 and played in 12 games for the Minnesota Vikings, starting one of those contests.

Hartley has been part of the most productive stretches in the Bulldogs' history. Georgia has compiled a 65-7 record over the last five seasons, including back-to-back College Football Playoff National Championships (2021, 2022), seven consecutive New Year's Six bowl games, which featured four CFP appearances, and the 2022, 2024 and 2025 SEC Championships since Hartley's return to the program.

During the 12-2 2025 season, Hartley's tight ends were pivotal to help Georgia win its second consecutive SEC title, advance to another CFP quarterfinal and top five top 25 teams, including three in the top 10. Led by Oscar Delp and Lawson Luckie, his tight ends combined for 545 and six touchdowns for an offense that put up 32 points per game and gave Gunner Stockton time to post the second best Completion Percentage in school history (69 percent, second in the SEC and 10th nationally).

Hartley guided a mixture of experienced veterans and promising newcomers at his position to more than 60 catches for nearly 800 yards and seven touchdowns in 2024. The Bulldogs ranked 12th nationally in Passing Offense (281.0 yards per game, third in the SEC) to help knock off No. 1 Texas in Austin, the then No. 2 Longhorns in the SEC Championship Game and two other top 15 opponents. Thanks in part to his tight ends' contributions, Georgia advanced to its fourth CFP appearance since 2017.

In 2023, Bowers led the Bulldogs in receiving for the third straight year as the offense finished ranked fifth nationally in both Scoring Offense (40.1 ppg) and Total Offense (496.5 ypg) and led the country in 3rd Down Conversions (55.2 percent) in 2023. Georgia went 13-1 following its 63-3 rout of No. 5 Florida State in the Capital One Orange Bowl, marking the program's third straight year with at least 13 victories.

Hartley was part of a coaching staff that led the 15-0 Bulldogs to the 2022 CFP National Championship with a 65-7 victory over No. 3 TCU in the title game following a 42-41 win over No. 4 Ohio State in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl CFP Semifinal. The Georgia offense ranked among the top five nationally in both Scoring Offense (41.1 ppg) and Total Offense (501.1 ypg) in 2022. The 'Dogs also finished first nationally in Red Zone Offense (97.6 percent), First Downs (375) and Fourth Down Percentage (86.7 percent).

Thanks in part to Hartley and his unit, the Bulldogs captured their first national championship since 1980 with a 14-1 campaign in 2021, highlighted with a 33-18 win over No. 1 Alabama in the CFP National Championship. That season, Georgia ranked 10th nationally in Scoring Offense (38.4 ppg) as Bowers topped his teammates with 56 catches for 882 yards (15.8 avg.) and 13 touchdowns in his true freshman season.

A native of Gray, Ga., Hartley served as the University of Miami's Special Teams Coordinator and Tight Ends Coach from 2016-18, under head coach Mark Richt.

Hartley arrived in Miami after serving as Georgia's Director of Player Personnel in 2015. Before his return to Georgia, he spent four years at Marshall serving in a variety of roles, including tight ends and safeties coach and recruiting coordinator from 2011-14.

Hartley originally joined the Georgia program as a student assistant at the end of the 2005 season. He worked with the offense and special teams until the spring of 2008 while he was an undergraduate.

Georgia tallied three bowl victories during Hartley's years working with the Bulldogs as a student, including a 41-10 win over No. 10 Hawai'i in the 2008 Sugar Bowl. He was instrumental in preparation of the Georgia defense for the 2009 Independence Bowl, when only one full-time defensive assistant was on staff. The Bulldogs routed Texas A&M 44-20 that night in Shreveport, La.

Hartley graduated from Georgia with a degree in health and physical education in May 2008. He and his wife Jessica have four children: Tucker, Teagan, Tenley and Tatum.

An Augusta, Ga., native, Knight joins the Bulldogs following a brief stint in a similar position for the West Virginia Mountaineers.

Knight came to West Virginia after serving as the defensive ends coach and run game coordinator at Arkansas State for the 2025 season. He helped lead the Red Wolves to seven wins, including a second-place finish in the Sun Belt Conference Western Division.

The Red Wolves registered 39 sacks for the year, tying for No. 1 in the Sun Belt Conference in total sacks and tying for No. 6 nationally for average sacks per game (3.00). That season, ASU had a season-best nine sacks against Troy, tying for the best single-game mark in the nation.

Arkansas State boasted having three of the top seven sack leaders in the conference and all four starting defensive linemen earned a spot on one of the Sun Belt Conference All-League teams. The Red Wolves finished No. 4 in the league in tackles for loss and No. 30 nationally and were No. 4 in the league in scoring defense, bettering their mark from the previous year by eight spots.

Knight worked as the defensive line Bill Walsh Minority Internship during the 2025 spring with the Green Bay Packers after spending the 2023 and 2024 seasons as the defensive line coach at Temple.

His coaching career also included stints at Georgia Tech as the defensive line and defensive recruiting coordinator (2019-22), Temple (2017-19) as the outside linebackers coach and defensive recruiting coordinator (2018-19) and the defensive line quality control and assistant director of player personnel for the defense (2017) and outside linebackers coach at Georgia State (2015-16).

While at Georgia Tech, Knight helped the Yellow Jackets sign the second highest recruiting class in program's history, ranking top 25 (2020) and secure the highest rated defensive line recruiting class (2021). He also helped coach and develop several All-Atlantic Coast Conference honorees, a Bronko Nagurski winner and three NFL Draft selections.

He also spent time as a defensive line intern with the Atlanta Falcons (2015), a defensive graduate assistant and defensive quality control coach at Tennessee (2013-15) and a defensive line graduate assistant at Cincinnati (2011-12).

Knight earned his bachelor's degree in entrepreneurship and marketing from Central Michigan in 2010. He was a four-year letterwinner, a Mid-American Conference all-league performer at defensive end in 2009 and helped lead the Chippewas to three conference titles.

Knight is married to Marquita Knight and his parents, Larry Knight Sr. and Delores Knight, still reside in Augusta.

PHIL RAUSCHER

ASSISTANT COACH / WIDE RECEIVERS

Phil Rauscher was promoted to Offensive Line Coach for the Bulldogs in January 2026 after serving the 2025 season as an offensive assistant with the line.

Rauscher helped guide an offense in 2025 that featured a new starting quarterback, only one lineman who had more than five starts the season before and without three of the team's top four receiving targets from 2024. Georgia's offense answered by averaging more than 32 points a game while toppling five top 20 teams. The Bulldogs won their second straight Southeastern Conference title and advanced to their second consecutive College Football Playoff quarterfinal. Georgia finished in the top 10 nationally in both Total First Downs (339, second in the SEC and fifth nationally) and Completion Percentage (69 percent, second in the SEC and 10th nationally).

Prior to his time in Athens, Rauscher spent the 2023-25 seasons as the Jacksonville Jaguars offensive line coach and run game coordinator. He worked in a variety of roles and mostly with the offensive line for the Denver Broncos (2015-17), Washington Redskins (2018-19) and Minnesota Vikings (2020-22) during a number of NFL seasons before his time in Jacksonville. During his tenure with the Vikings, Minnesota allowed the fifth-fewest sacks (30) in 2021 and RB Dalvin Cook went for 1,159 yards en route to Pro Bowl honors.

The Carlsbad, Calif., native also worked on the collegiate staffs for California Lutheran University (2014), Hawaii (2012-13), Utah (2011), Dixie State (2010) and his alma mater UCLA (2008-09) during his coaching career.

TRAVARIS ROBINSON

CO-DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR / SAFETIES

Travaris Robinson joined head coach Kirby Smart's coaching staff in January 2024 to be the Bulldogs' Co-Defensive Coordinator and guide the safeties.

Robinson helped the 2025 Georgia team to a 12-2 record, its second consecutive Southeastern Conference crown and its second straight trip to the College Football Playoff quarterfinals. Bolstered by the play of his safeties, the Bulldogs ranked fourth nationally in Rush Defense (81.5 yards per game), 10th in Scoring Defense (17.7 points per game) and 14th in Total Defense (298 ypg). Georgia kept No. 10 Texas and No. 9 Alabama to a combined 17 points over a four-game stretch late in the season.

Under Robinson's tutelage, KJ Bolden was the team's second-leading tackler in 2025 with 76 stops and two interceptions to earn All-American and All-SEC second team honors. The 2025 NFL Draft saw a pair of his 2024 safeties selected as First Team All-American Malaki Starks was picked at 27th overall in the first round by the Baltimore Ravens and All-SEC selection Dan Jackson was taken in the seventh round by the Detroit Lions.

Robinson teamed with Bulldog Defensive Coordinator Glenn Schumann to maintain the standard set by Georgia's recent defenses during his first season in 2024. In his UGA debut, the defense held No. 14 Clemson to just three points. During one of Georgia's next challenges, Robinson helped the Bulldogs blast top-ranked Texas 30-15 in Austin in front of a record-breaking crowd after the Longhorns arrived averaging 43.2 ppg. The defense flexed its muscle during the 2024 season's fourth quarter, holding opponents to their lowest cumulative quarter total of 60 points.

Starks was a Thorpe Award finalist as a junior and earned First Team All-America honors for the second season in a row under Robinson's tutelage in 2024 while Bolden was a Freshman All-American and a semifinalist for the Shaun Alexander National Freshman of the Year Award. In addition, Robinson helped guide Jackson to All-SEC Third Team honors thanks in part to his 64 tackles (third on the team) and two interceptions.

Robinson had spent the two seasons (2022-23) before arriving in Athens coaching CBs at Alabama. Thanks in part to his leadership, the Tide posted a 23-4 record over that period, including wins in the 2023 SEC Championship Game and 2022 Sugar Bowl.

Robinson guided 2023 Freshman All-American and Shaun Alexander National Freshman of the Year Caleb Downs as he led the Tide with 107 tackles, had two interceptions, forced a fumble and a recovered a fumble in his first season. In addition to having cornerback Brian Branch taken in the second round of the 2023 NFL Draft, Robinson helped Alabama rank in the top 12 nationally in both Scoring Defense (18.2 ppg) and in Total Defense (318.2 ypg) in 2022.

The Gators defense finished the 2014 regular season ranked ninth nationally in total defense, 14th in pass efficiency defense and 23rd in passing defense.

Smith (2018), Dean, Quay Walker and Channing Tindall (2022), along with Monty Rice (2021) and Tae Crowder (2020), were all taken in the NFL Draft. Smith was the eighth overall draft pick in 2018 while Walker was the 22nd overall selection in the 2022 draft.

Schumann came to UGA after eight years with the Crimson Tide, first as an undergraduate analyst (2008-Dec. 2011) and then as a graduate assistant (Dec. 2011-Feb. 2014). Scott was briefly hired as the defensive line coach at Ole Miss in January 2017, before accepting the Georgia job prior to that season. Scott directed a defensive front that helped Georgia go 12-2 in 2025, win its second consecutive SEC crown and advance to the CFP quarterfinal round for the second straight year. His unit's worth was highlighted by the Bulldogs ranking fourth nationally in Rush Defense (81.5 yards per game), 10th in Scoring Defense (17.6 points per game) and 14th in Total Defense (298 ypg).

Junior Gabe Harris led Scott's front with 26 stops, including a team-high 6.5 tackles for loss, while redshirt junior Christen Miller, freshman Elijah Griffin and redshirt sophomore Xzavier McLeod combined for another 62 tackles and 6.5 TFLs. Junior ILB CJ Allen benefitted from the effort up front as he earned consensus All-America honors and was a finalist for both the Butkus and Lott IMPACT honors. The unit's highlight came when the Tide was held to minus three yards rushing during the Bulldogs' 28-7 thrashing at the SECCG.

The 2024 Broyles Award nominee guided his unit to another batch of success in his eighth season with the Bulldogs. The defense began the year holding No. 14 Clemson to just three points and helped the Bulldogs blast top-ranked Texas 30-15 in Austin in front of a record crowd after the Longhorns arrived averaging 43.2 ppg. Georgia's defense flexed its muscle during the 2024 season's fourth quarter, holding opponents to their lowest cumulative quarter total of 60 points.

Scott coached Williams to be a 2024 Lombardi Award semifinalist and an All-SEC Second Team selection as Georgia had a variety of honors arise in the levels behind the defensive line.

Scott helped the Bulldogs go 13-1 in 2023, finishing the campaign with a 63-3 dismantling of No. 5 Florida State in the Capital One Orange Bowl. The defense kept opponents to just 15.6 ppg, which ranked fifth nationally, and led the country in 3rd Down Conversion Defense (25.7 percent). Scott's top three in the final statistics – Nazir Stackhouse, Brinson, Williams – totaled 62 tackles, 15 tackles for loss and 11.5 sacks.

Williams and Stackhouse were Second Team All-SEC selections when the 2023 campaign concluded.

He was part of a coaching staff that led the 15-0 Bulldogs to the 2022 CFP National Championship with a 65-7 victory over TCU in the title game following a semifinal win over Ohio State in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl, 42-41. The Georgia defense finished the season ranked among the nation's leaders in Rushing Defense (1st, 77.1 ypg), Scoring Defense (5th, 14.3 ppg), Red Zone Defense (2nd, 0.676) and Total Defense (9th, 296.8 ypg). The 'Dogs defense also boasted First Team All-Americans DL Jalen Carter, who was also a Lombardi finalist.

Scott was part of a 2021 staff that led the Bulldogs to the CFP National Championship with 33-18 win over Alabama in the title game. Georgia set 21 school single-season team records, including Fewest Points Allowed, Fewest Average Points Allowed and Interception TDs. Georgia also finished first nationally in Red Zone Defense, second nationally in Rushing Defense and Passing Efficiency Defense. The Bulldog defense surrendered only three rushing and 10 passing TDs all year. Georgia set an NFL record with 15 picks in the 2022 NFL Draft, including five first round defensive players and eight overall.

In 2021 alone, Georgia defensive linemen reaped a bounty of honors. Jordan Davis won the Outland Trophy and Bednarik Award, as well as First Team All-America honors. Devonte Wyatt earned Second Team All-America honors, and both Wyatt and Carter were named Second Team All-SEC.

Prior to moving to North Carolina, Scott served two years (2013-14) as defensive line coach at UT Martin. He also held positions as defensive line graduate assistant at Ole Miss (2012) and assistant coach at Arkansas State (2010-11). Scott was also a graduate assistant coach at his alma mater, Arkansas Tech, from the fall of 2008 until the spring of 2010.

In addition, S KJ Bolden was a Second Team All-American and DB Daylen Everette was included on the All-Southeastern Conference squad.

Thacker's first season in 2024 with the Georgia defense saw the unit keep No. 14 Clemson to just three points in the season opener and hold top-ranked Texas to just two third quarter touchdowns six games later. The Bulldogs' 30-15 victory in Austin came after the Longhorns arrived for the contest averaging 43.2 ppg.

Individually, the Bulldogs had hybrid LB Jalon Walker garner the Butkus Award while Walker and S Malaki Starks earned First Team All-America honors. In addition, Bolden was a Freshman All-American and a semifinalist for the Shaun Alexander Freshman of the Year Award, ILB Chris Cole was named to the Freshman All-SEC Team and Starks was a Jim Thorpe Award finalist.

Additionally, five of Thacker's former players went on to sign NFL contracts. DB Tariq Carpenter became the first defensive player drafted out of Tech in six years when the Green Bay Packers selected him in the 2022 NFL Draft. Then in 2023, Yellow Jacket defensive end Keion White went 46th overall in the second round to the New England Patriots.

As a unit, Thacker's Tech defenses ranked among the nation's top 25 defensively in multiple categories, including in 2022 when Tech was ranked in the top 15 in Turnovers Gained and top 10 in Fumbles Recovered and Blocked Kicks. The Yellow Jackets boasted top 25 rankings in Defensive Touchdowns in two seasons during 2020-22. The Yellow Jackets also ranked among the top 25 nationally in Total Takeaways in 2020.

A native of Cartersville, Ga., Thacker came to The Flats after two seasons on the staff at Temple. Thacker helped produce one of the AAC's highest-ranked defenses during his one season as the defensive coordinator at Temple. In addition to ranking among the nation's top three teams in defensive touchdowns, turnovers, fumble recoveries and interceptions, the Owls were among the AAC's top three teams in Total Defense (second), Passing Defense (second), Third Down Conversion Percentage Defense (second) and Scoring Defense (third). As linebackers coach in 2017, he helped TU rank among the top teams nationally in both Sacks (11th) and Tackles for Loss (11th).

Prior to his two seasons at Temple, Thacker spent the 2016 season as linebackers coach at Kennesaw State, where he helped KSU lead the Big South in Scoring Defense and Rushing Defense and rank second in Total Defense.

DONTE WILLIAMS

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH / DEFENSIVE BACKS

Donte Williams, a veteran of coaching defensive backs at multiple power conference schools, was named the defensive backs coach at UGA in December of 2023.

Williams has worked with Bulldog Defensive Coordinator Glenn Schumann to maintain the standard set by Georgia's recent defenses. Williams' second season with the Bulldogs saw the squad go 12-2, win its second consecutive Southeastern Conference title and advance to its second College Football Playoff quarterfinal in a row. Highlighted by holding No. 10 Texas and No. 9 Alabama to a combined 17 points for a pair of late season top 10 victories, Georgia's defense ranked fourth nationally in Rush Defense (81.5 yards per game), 10th in Scoring Defense (17.6 points per game) and 14th in Total Defense (298 pyg).

Williams' unit included redshirt freshman Ellis Robinson IV, who tied for the SEC lead with four interceptions, and junior Daylen Everette, who was an All-SEC selection after totaling 50 stops to go with a pick in the SEC Championship Game and a fumble recovery. Robinson was also named the FWAA National Freshman Defensive Player of the Year following the 2025 season.

In his first game with UGA in 2024, the defense held No. 14 Clemson to just three points. During one of Georgia's next challenges, Williams' unit helped the Bulldogs blast top-ranked Texas 30-15 in Austin in front of a record-breaking crowd after the Longhorns arrived averaging 43.2 ppg. The defense flexed its muscle during the 2024 season's fourth quarter, holding opponents to their lowest cumulative quarter total of 60 points.

Under Williams' tutelage, Everette started all 14 games and had a team-high three interceptions to go along with 58 tackles, two forced fumbles and a fumble recovery. Everette was the MVP of the SEC Championship Game after his two picks helped the Bulldogs down Texas for the second time on the year.

Williams previously served in the same role at Southern California, where he worked on the Trojans' staff from 2020-2023. He was originally hired onto the staff as the defensive passing game coordinator and cornerbacks coach, serving in those roles in 2020.

Williams was promoted to assistant head coach in 2021 and also held those same previous duties. Following the head coaching change in 2021, Williams served as the interim head coach for the remainder of the 2021 season. He continued to serve on new head coach Lincoln Riley's staff in 2022 and '23 as defensive backs coach and defensive passing game coordinator. Williams was named the Pac-12 Recruiter of the Year as he stocked the Trojans' roster.

During the 2022 season, Williams helped lead the program's defense to a top five national ranking in interceptions per game. He developed both Calen Bullock and Mekhi Blackmon to standout campaigns as each was taken in the third round of the 2023 NFL Draft. Bullock garnered First Team All-America honors after finishing with 48 tackles and a team-leading five interceptions before getting picked by the Houston Texans.

Blackmon, an All Pac-12 First Team member, recorded 66 total tackles, two of which were for a loss, 12 pass breakups, three interceptions, a fumble recovery and a forced fumble. Blackmon was selected by the Minnesota Vikings. Southern California won 11 games in '22 and earned a berth in the Cotton Bowl. In 2023, the Trojans advanced to the Holiday Bowl against Louisville.

Before he arrived at USC, Williams spent the 2018 and '19 seasons at Oregon as the Ducks' cornerbacks coach. The Ducks finished 2018 ranked 11th in the nation in interceptions with 17 and 2019 with the second-most of any program in the country with 20. Oregon went to bowl games in those seasons, winning the Redbox Bowl over Michigan State in 2018 and the Rose Bowl in 2019 against No. 5 Wisconsin. Williams played a pivotal role in recruiting Oregon's class of 2020, which ranked seventh in the nation and top in the Pac-12.

Williams was hired to coach the cornerbacks for Arizona in 2016. He then coached cornerbacks, nickelbacks and dimebacks at Nebraska in 2017, also assisting with the program's pass-defense coordination.

Williams was hired by San Jose State in 2013 as the program's cornerbacks coach and then was promoted to serve as both the defensive backs coach and the recruiting coordinator for the program, a position he held for the 2014 and 2015 seasons. During the 2014 campaign, the Spartans only allowed 117.8 passing yards per game and gave up just six passing touchdowns on the season, both of which ranked top in the nation.

The following year in 2015, SJSU continued its dominance in passing defense thanks to Williams, holding offenses to an average of 157.8 pyg, the second lowest in the nation. The Spartans would finish the year winning the Cure Bowl, beating Georgia State 27-16. During his tenure, Williams was named a Top 10 National Recruiter by Sports Illustrated in 2015 and as the top recruiter in the Mountain West by 247Sports in 2014.

Williams was hired by current Texas coach Steve Sarkisian to join the staff at Washington as a graduate assistant for the 2011 and 2012 seasons. His responsibilities included assisting with overseeing the cornerbacks and linebackers for the Huskies. Washington spent time ranked during both seasons and made the Alamo Bowl in 2011 and the Las Vegas Bowl in 2012.

He earned his first spot on staff with an FBS program at Nevada in 2010 as a defensive quality control coach for the Wolfpack. The team went on to make the Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl in San Francisco where it beat Boston College, 20-13.

Williams began the first three years of his coaching career at a trio of small colleges as the cornerbacks coach at each stop. He was on staff for three different California schools for the 2007, 2008 and 2009 seasons - at Los Angeles Harbor Community College, El Camino Junior College and Mount San Antonio Junior College, respectively.

Alongside his first stints in coaching, Williams also played two seasons in the Arena Football League 2 - for the Rio Grande Valley Dorados in 2007 and then the Arkansas Twisters in 2008.

Williams played high school football for Culver City High in California and eventually began his collegiate playing career as a defensive back at Pasadena City College in California for the 2002 season. He then played at Syracuse in 2003 before ending his collegiate career at Idaho State in 2004 and 2005, receiving a bachelor's degree in Communications in the spring of 2006. Williams received All-Big Sky First Team recognitions and was selected as a team captain during both seasons playing for the Bengals.

Williams is married to his wife Jayna and the two have three sons named King, Saint and Truth.

No. 5 Georgia 45, Marshall 7

Aug. 30, 2025 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens, Ga.

ATHENS, Ga. — The fifth-ranked Georgia football team opened its season Saturday afternoon with a 45-7 win over Marshall at Sanford Stadium, extending the nation's longest home winning streak to 32 games. The sellout crowd of 93,033, along with a national television audience on ESPN, saw quarterback Gunner Stockton run for a pair of touchdowns and throw for two more, while the Bulldog defense held the Thundering Herd to just seven first downs.

Georgia outgained Marshall 488-207, with the Bulldogs rushing for 239 and throwing for 249; five different Bulldogs scored touchdowns. Defensively, Georgia held the Herd to just 72 yards of offense through the first three quarters. Linebacker Raylen Wilson paced the defense with seven stops, including two for loss.

Marshall got the ball to start the game and immediately ran into a stout Georgia defense. The Herd lost a yard over three plays and quickly punted. The Bulldog offense then went 70 yards in eight plays, taking a 7-0 lead on Dwight Phillips, Jr.'s 17-yard touchdown run. Stockton found wideout Zachariah Branch for a 25-yard gain on third-and-3 earlier in the drive, and then Stockton ran for 14 yards on fourth-and-2 at the Herd 31. Phillips scored on the next play.

Just like the opening drive, the Bulldogs ran the ball in for their second score. This time, it was Stockton with an effective fake handoff to Chauncey Bowens that gave the quarterback space to run the ball in from the 13 on fourth-and-1, making it 14-0. Stockton and Branch also connected for a big gain on third down on this drive, a 23-yarder on third-and-5.

With 10:15 left in the first half, Georgia got its first big special teams play of the season, a blocked punt by KJ Bolden deep in Marshall territory. A couple of plays later, Stockton ran the ball in for an 11-yard touchdown and a 21-0 lead with 9:07 on the clock.

Bulldog kicker Peyton Woodring connected on a 43-yard field goal attempt with 24 seconds remaining in the half, giving Georgia a 24-0 lead.

Georgia's offense got the ball to begin the third quarter and showed some explosiveness with a 47-yard touchdown pass from Stockton to Branch, who took the screen pass to the left and covered all 47 yards after the catch. Stockton's third career touchdown pass made it 31-0 with 13:13 left in the quarter.

A Stockton pass to wideout London Humphreys in the back of the end zone on fourth down at the Marshall 2 made it 38-0 with 3:51 to play in the third quarter. Ryan Puglisi led the Bulldogs to another touchdown, finding tight end Elyiss Williams for a 23-yard score and a 45-0 lead with 14:18 left in the game. Marshall got on the scoreboard with 10:27 to go, with Joshon Barbie scoring on a 1-yard run.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"I am happy for these kids. They work year-round. You only get so many games. I was really pleased with our guys coming out with a great attitude, great opening drive, converted some fourth downs. Really big drive to start the second half to kind of put it out of reach. I am proud of the way our team competed."

Elyiss Williams scored his first career touchdown against Marshall.

Worth Noting...

- Georgia is now 102-27-3 in season-openers all-time, including 10-0 under head coach Kirby Smart. The Bulldogs' 32-game home win streak is both a school record and the longest active streak in the FBS. The NCAA record is 58, set by Miami from 1985-94.
- Backup QB Ryan Puglisi found tight end Elyiss Williams for a 23-yard score and a 45-0 lead with 14:18 left in the game. It was the first career touchdown pass for Puglisi, and the first career catch (and score) for Williams.
- Saturday's win was a little different from the only other meeting between the Bulldogs and Thundering Herd. When Marshall visited Georgia in 2004, the Bulldogs got behind 3-0 before winning 13-3.
- The Branch brothers, Zachariah and Zion, made strong debuts for the Bulldogs after transferring from USC. Zachariah led the wideouts with three catches for 98 yards and a 47-yard touchdown, while Zion, a reserve safety, tied for the team lead with seven tackles.
- Safety KJ Bolden's biggest play was on special teams, when he blocked a punt that was recovered by linebacker Terrell Foster at the Marshall 20-yard line.
- The captains for the Marshall game were offensive linemen Earnest Greene, III and Drew Bobo, linebacker CJ Allen and defensive lineman Christen Miller. The Thundering Herd won the toss and elected to receive the opening kickoff.

No. 4 Georgia 28, Austin Peay 6

Sept. 6, 2025 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens, Ga.

ATHENS, Ga. — After a weather delay of more than two hours, the fourth-ranked Georgia football team knocked off Austin Peay, 28-6, at Sanford Stadium, extending the nation's longest home winning streak to 33 games in front of a sellout crowd of 93,033 and a national television audience on ESPN+.

Running backs Chauncey Bowens and Nate Frazier rushed for a pair of touchdowns each to help lift Georgia over the Governors, an FCS program. Quarterback Gunner Stockton was 26 of 34 passing for 227 yards, and Georgia's rushing trio of Frazier, Bowens and Dwight Phillips, Jr., combined for 180 yards on 32 carries.

The Bulldogs were denied by Austin Peay at the 1-yard line on five straight plays to end the first half, keeping the score 14-3. Late in the third quarter and early in the fourth, Georgia's defense denied the Governors on a long series of plays inside the 10, keeping the Bulldog lead at 21-6. Georgia then tied a school record with a 99-yard touchdown drive that was capped by a win-sealing Frazier 1-yard rush.

The kickoff was moved up an hour to 2:30 p.m. because of thunderstorms that were expected to pass through Athens later in the afternoon. Those storms arrived in the region as the first half was ending. Per SEC rules, play was halted for 30 minutes whenever there was a lightning strike within eight miles of the stadium — and the clock reset after each subsequent strike.

Georgia committed its first turnover of the season on its opening drive, a Frazier fumble near midfield that Peay cornerback Ellis Ellis, Jr., recovered. The Bulldog defense quickly forced a punt, so no harm was done, and the Georgia offense got right back to work on its second drive. Bowens put UGA ahead 7-0 with two-yard rush with 5:55 left in the first quarter.

On the ensuing Peay drive, Georgia linebacker Chris Cole got the sophomore's first career sack, for a loss of eight yards. Later, after Peay was forced to punt, Frazier ran the ball in from the 2 for his first touchdown of the season and a 14-0 lead.

The Governors connected on a 44-yard field goal by Carson Smith to cut the lead to 14-3 with 9:08 remaining. After the two-hour delay during halftime, Georgia immediately got a defensive stop, and then the offense drove 60 yards for a touchdown. Bowens' 14-yard rush made it 21-3 lead with 10:54 left in the third.

Georgia's next possession ended with a fumble by wideout London Humphreys, and the Gobs turned that into a 43-yard field goal, making it 21-6 with 5:51 to go in the third. After the Bulldogs' big defensive stop inside the 10 late in the third and early in the fourth, Georgia went 99 yards to put the game away on Frazier's score. Linebackers CJ Allen and Raylen Wilson led the defense with seven tackles each.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"I really thought we came out of the delay with some juice. It was cool out, the music was good, the fans were excited, players were excited, it wasn't near as hot. We came out and got a three-and-out, came down to score, and seized the momentum, so I was really proud of our guys for that."

Chauncey Bowens scored twice to pace the Bulldogs versus Austin Peay.

- It was a career day for sophomore running back Chauncey Bowens, who scored the first two touchdowns of his career and ran for a career-high 56 yards on 11 carries. He ran the ball five times on Georgia's 10-play drive that put UGA up 7-0, scoring from the 2-yard line.
- Senior wide receiver Colbie Young was QB Gunner Stockton's top target, catching seven passes for 76 yards. Junior London Humphreys was second with three catches for 29. Stockton completed his first 10 passes in the game, finishing 26 of 34 for 227 yards.
- A marathon touchdown drive of 99 yards, the seventh time a Georgia team has done that, ended with a 1-yard Nate Frazier rush and a 28-6 lead with 5:39 remaining. The 17-play drive lasted 8:43, the second-longest touchdown drive in program history.
- Offensive linemen Jahzare Jackson and Michael Uini made their first career starts, while cornerback Daylen Everette returned to the starting lineup after missing the opener with an injury.
- Punter Brett Thorson, a 2024 All-American, made his 2025 debut against the Governors. After suffering a major knee injury in last season's SEC Championship Game, Thorson missed the College Football Playoffs and was held out of the opener against Marshall. In his first outing, Thorson punted four times, for a 43.8-yard average, and had one downed at the 4-yard line.
- The captains for the Austin Peay game were quarterback Gunner Stockton, wide-out Colbie Young, linebacker Raylen Wilson and safety KJ Bolden. Georgia won the toss and elected to receive, something the Bulldogs hadn't done after winning the toss since 2023.

No. 6 Georgia 44, No. 15 Tennessee 41 (OT)

Sept. 13, 2025 • Neyland Stadium • Knoxville, Tenn.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. — At the end of a back-and-forth game Saturday afternoon at Neyland Stadium, Georgia running back Josh McCray scored on a 1-yard run in overtime to lift No. 6 Georgia to a 44-41 win over No. 15 Tennessee in front of a sellout crowd of 101,915, along with a national television audience on ABC.

The SEC opener for both teams featured nearly 1,000 yards of offense, with Georgia gaining 502 and Tennessee 496. Quarterback Gunner Stockton finished 23 of 31 passing for 304 yards and two touchdowns, and the Georgia rushing attack piled up 198 yards on the ground. Defensively, linebacker CJ Allen had a team-high 11 tackles, and defensive backs Joenel Agüero and KJ Bolden each had interceptions.

Tennessee quarterback Joey Aguilar capped the Vols' opening drive with a 4-yard touchdown run. The Bulldogs answered with their own impressive drive, beginning with a 45-yard completion from Stockton to Colbie Young. Stockton later hit Zachariah Branch for 10 yards, and capped the drive with a 6-yard touchdown run.

The Vols' next drive ended after two plays, on a 72-yard touchdown pass from Aguilar to Chris Brazzell II. Tennessee later took a 21-7 lead on Aguilar's 14-yard touchdown pass to Brazzell with 3:37 left in the first.

Georgia responded with a nine-play, 72-yard drive that included a Stockton pass to Branch for a first down on fourth-and-3 at the Bulldog 48. Later, Stockton threw a screen pass to Branch that the wideout turned into a 36-yard touchdown, cutting the UT lead to 21-14. Late in the first half, the Bulldogs drove down to the Tennessee 2-yard line before having to settle for a Peyton Woodring 20-yard field goal.

Georgia opened the second half with a 14-play drive to take a 24-21 lead, scoring on a 1-yard McCray touchdown. Late in the third, Georgia's defense produced another interception, this time by Bolden. Woodring's 48-yard field goal made it 27-21 Bulldogs.

The Vols answered with a 56-yard touchdown pass from Aguilar to Brazzell, putting Tennessee back in front. Woodring's 24-yard field goal gave Georgia the lead, 30-28, with 12:20 remaining in the game.

Tennessee regained lead on a 32-yard pass from Aguilar to Braylon Staley with 11:01 to play. The Volunteers then stripped Stockton, recovering the ball at the Georgia 34. Tennessee turned the turnover into 3 points on Gilbert's 48-yard field goal, pushing its lead to 38-30.

Georgia tied the game with 2:32 to go when, facing fourth-and-6, Stockton hit Humphreys for a 28-yard touchdown. On the 2-point conversion attempt, Stockton found Branch on the left side, making it 38-38. Tennessee had time to drive down to the Georgia 25 and set Gilbert up for the game-winning score, but he missed from 43 yards out.

Tennessee got the ball first in OT and was held to a 42-yard Gilbert field goal. Nate Frazier ran left for 21 yards down to the 4 on the Bulldogs' first play of overtime, and McCray score the game-winner.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"It was a great college football game. I'm really proud of our guys; we talked about coming in here to conquer this place, which is not easy to do, and when you do something like that, you have to make your own way."

Nate Frazier had a 21-yard run on Georgia's first play of overtime.

No. 17 Alabama 24, No. 5 Georgia 21

Sept. 27, 2025 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens, Ga.

ATHENS, Ga. — In front of a sellout crowd of 93,033 Saturday night at Sanford Stadium and a national television audience on ABC, No. 17 Alabama handed fifth-ranked Georgia its first home loss since 2019, 24-21, snapping the longest win streak in the FBS at 33 games.

Alabama stopped the Bulldogs on fourth down at the Crimson Tide 8 with 13:20 remaining in the game to preserve the three-point lead. Georgia got 227 yards on the ground, including the first career 100-yard game from Chauncey Bowens, who ran for 119, and quarterback Gunner Stockton was 13 of 20 passing for 130 yards and a touchdown.

A year ago, Alabama snapped Georgia's record 28-game SEC regular-season game win streak with a victory in Tuscaloosa. On Saturday, the Bulldogs had few answers for Alabama's offense early in the game, and then couldn't quite make enough plays to tie or take the lead after cutting the Tide lead to 24-21 with 6:30 left in the third quarter.

Georgia's last home loss came on Oct. 12, 2019, a 20-17 double-overtime defeat against South Carolina. This time around, the Bulldogs never led. Alabama out-gained the Bulldogs 397-357, though Georgia averaged 6.7 yards per play to 5.2 for Bama.

The Tide took a 7-0 lead by capping a 14-play drive with a 6-yard touchdown pass from Ty Simpson to wide receiver Germie Bernard. Alabama later went up 14-0 on a 6-yard Simpson pass to Isaiah Horton.

Georgia's offense needed to make something happen, and it did. Stockton hit wide receiver Colbie Young wide open on the right side for a 38-yard touchdown, cutting the lead to 14-7 with 12:48 to go in the half.

After recovering a fumble at the Georgia 11, Alabama pushed its lead to 17-7 with a 24-yard field goal with 8:30 on the clock. Georgia answered with a touchdown drive that ended with a 2-yard Bowens run to the left side, cutting Alabama's lead to 17-14 with 2:08 remaining in the half. Earlier in the 11-play drive, Bowens broke free for a career-long 43-yard rush to the 10.

Simpson ran the ball in from the 2 for a 24-14 Tide lead with 34 seconds left in the half. At the break, Alabama had a 262-196 lead in total offense and an 18:35-11:25 lead in time of possession.

The Tide got the ball to start the second half and came away empty on the drive after Conor Talty missed a 43-yard field-goal attempt. Georgia took over at its 26-yard line and got a 43-yard reverse run from wideout Dillon Bell to get down to the Tide 25. The Bulldogs later scored on Josh McCray's 1-yard rush, cutting the lead to 24-21 with 6:30 left in the third.

Early in the fourth quarter, on fourth-and-1 at the Tide 8, Cash Jones was stopped for a loss of 3. Georgia's offense later got the ball back, but it wasn't able to get into field-goal range. Alabama the ball back at its 12 with 3:19 remaining and was able to run out the clock and hand the Bulldogs a rare home loss.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"The environment was incredible. It was probably the best environment I've ever been a part of here. The crowd did their part, that's for sure. The crowd was incredible and created a home field advantage that should have been enough for us to win, but we didn't play real well and they did."

Chauncey Bowens rushed for a career-high 119 yards.

No. 12 Georgia 35, Kentucky 14

Oct. 4, 2025 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens, Ga.

ATHENS, Ga. — Georgia quarterback Gunner Stockton rushed for a pair of touchdowns and threw for one more in the No. 12-ranked Bulldogs' 35-14 win over Kentucky on Saturday afternoon. It was a dominating performance in front of a Homecoming crowd of 93,033 at Sanford Stadium and a national television audience on ABC.

Stockton and wide receiver Dillon Bell each had a pair of rushing touchdowns, and the Bulldog offense piled up 425 yards of offense. Stockton, who sat out the fourth quarter, finished 15 of 23 passing for 196 yards and ran for 48 yards on six attempts.

The Bulldogs converted nine of their first 10 third-down attempts and finished with a 33:38-26:22 advantage in time of possession. The defense held the Wildcats to 270 yards — about a quarter of them coming after Georgia went up 35-7 and started sitting its starters — and forced two turnovers. Linebacker CJ Allen had six tackles, including a sack and two for loss; he also forced and recovered a fumble in the third quarter.

After getting behind early in its previous two games, the Bulldogs got the ball to start the game against Kentucky and Stockton put the Bulldogs ahead with a 7-yard scramble and score.

Georgia began its next drive at its 4-yard line. A Stockton pass to London Humphreys for 18 yards moved the ball to the 22, and that was later followed by a 11-yard pass play to Nate Frazier. A 19-yard Stockton run on third-and-2 moved the ball to the Kentucky 29, and on the next play, the quarterback hit Humphreys for 17 yards plus a penalty on Kentucky. Two plays later, Stockton ran the ball in untouched for a 14-0 lead.

The Wildcats went 75 yards in four plays and scored on a 29-yard touchdown pass from Cutter Boley to tight end Josh Kattus to cut the Georgia lead to 14-7. Kentucky got the ball back soon after on an interception, but the Georgia defense forced a three-and-out to avoid any damage.

Georgia's next drive ended with a 60-yard Brett Thorson punt that Humphreys downed at the Kentucky 1-yard line. The Bulldog defense then forced their third three-and-out of the half. Bell then wrapped up the ensuing drive with a 3-yard score. His rush was Georgia's 23rd of the half, for 134 yards and three scores.

Allen forced and recovered a fumble on Kentucky's drive to open the second half, giving the Bulldog offense the ball at the Wildcat 38. Two plays later, Stockton hit tight end Oscar Delp for 36 yards down to the 5. On third down from the 3, Bell again ran the ball in untouched, pushing Georgia's lead to 28-7 with 10:54 left in the third.

The Bulldogs added to their lead later in the third with a 16-yard touchdown pass from Stockton to running back Cash Jones, making it 35-7 with 4:23 to play in the quarter.

Kentucky added a late touchdown on a 5-yard pass from Boley to Kendrick Law, cutting the lead to 35-14.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"It feels great. It's hard to win in the SEC, and you don't realize that until you're in it. It's hard to go on the road and win, and our guys came out with good juice today. I think we scored the first two or three drives — that was big, setting the tone; getting off the field some on defense was huge. I think that's a big success and a big step in the right direction for us."

Dillon Bell scored on both of his rushing attempts against Kentucky.

- Wide receiver Dillon Bell had two carries for 6 yards, which doesn't sound like much. But both of his rushing attempts went for 3-yard touchdowns. Bell was also Georgia's leading receiver with four catches for 68 yards, highlighted by a one-handed grab with a defender all over him along the left sideline.
- Linebacker CJ Allen has made a ton of big plays in his three seasons with the Bulldogs, but Saturday's forced fumble and subsequent recovery were career firsts. The play was also the Georgia defense's first takeaway via fumble of the season. Allen and Justin Williams led the defense with six stops each; Allen also had a pair of tackles for loss, including a sack.
- Georgia's first two drives took the long route to the end zone. The first was a 12-play, 75-yard drive that ended with Gunner Stockton's 7-yard run into the end zone. The second covered 96 yards in 13 plays and also ended with a Stockton rush, this time from the 6-yard line. The Bulldogs got the job done on third down throughout the game, finishing 8 of 12.
- With the win, the Bulldogs improved to 57-6 since 2021, the best record in the FBS. Georgia is now 53-5 at Sanford Stadium under coach Kirby Smart. This was the program's ninth straight win on Homecoming.
- The captains for the game were cornerback Daylen Everette, linebacker Quintavious Johnson, tight end Lawson Luckie and left tackle Monroe Freeling. Kentucky won the toss and elected to defer to the second half, so the Bulldogs received the opening kickoff.

No. 10 Georgia 20, Auburn 10

Oct. 11, 2025 • Jordan-Hare Stadium • Auburn, Ala.

AUBURN, Ala. — It wasn't easy — it seldom is against Auburn — but the No. 10-ranked Georgia football team scratched and clawed its way back from a 10-0 deficit to knock off the Tigers, 20-10, Saturday night at Jordan-Hare Stadium, in front of a sellout crowd of 88,043 and a national television audience on ABC.

Quarterback Gunner Stockton's 10-yard run for a touchdown with 1:53 to play sealed the Bulldogs' ninth straight win over the Tigers in the 130th edition of the Deep South's oldest rivalry. Georgia's win streak ties the longest ever in the series, set by the Bulldogs from 1923-31.

Stockton completed 24 of 37 passes for 217 yards and also led Georgia in rushing with nine carries for 26 yards. Zachariah Branch finished with nine receptions for 57 yards.

Auburn had a 237-78 advantage in total offense and a 21:48-8:12 advantage in time of possession at the half, and by the end, Georgia finished with 296 yards to Auburn's 277, and a 30:19-29:41 advantage possession. Georgia's defense held Auburn to 40 second-half yards; linebacker CJ Allen led the defense with 10 tackles, including two for loss and an 8-yard sack.

Auburn drove 75 yards in 14 plays to start the game, taking a 7-0 lead on quarterback Jackson Arnold's 2-yard run. Early in the second quarter, Georgia was able to hold Auburn to a 25-yard Alex McPherson field goal, pushing the Tiger lead to 10-0.

With less than two minutes to play in the half, Arnold dove over the pile from the 1 for the potential touchdown. But Georgia linebacker Raylen Wilson punched the ball out and safety Kyron Jones recovered the fumble at the 2, earning the Bulldogs a huge stop with 1:32 left in the half.

Georgia got a lot of help from three Auburn penalties on the ensuing 12-play drive, including two 15-yarders. Peyton Woodring got the Bulldogs on the scoreboard with a 29-yard field goal, cutting the Tiger lead to 10-3.

Georgia's offense began its second drive of the third quarter with a 21-yard Stockton completion to wideout Colbie Young. Later, Stockton hit receiver Noah Thomas down the middle for 30 yards to the 2. On the next play, running back Chauncey Bowens ran the ball in for Georgia's first touchdown, tying the game 10-10 with 7:23 remaining in the third quarter.

The Bulldogs took a 13-10 lead on Woodring's 53-yard field goal with 1:22 left in the quarter. In the fourth, after a third straight Auburn three-and-out, Georgia got the ball back at its 22. On third-and-8 from the 24, Stockton hit wideout London Humphreys for 17 yards to the 41. Completions of 9 and 10 yards to Branch moved the ball into Auburn territory, and on fourth-and-3 at the 40, Stockton found Humphreys again, this time for 8 yards.

Later in the drive, Georgia converted a third-and-1 at the 23 when Stockton found Frazier for a 6-yard completion to the 17. Three plays later, Stockton ran it in from the 10 to make it 20-10 with 1:53 to play.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"It was a tale of two halves. Our kids never quit. I'm proud of our kids. I'm as proud of this team as probably any team ever for the performance. We did not come out and start fast, play well. They outplayed us. They played with momentum, tempo, run game, stopped us running the ball in the first half. Frustrating, but the kids never quit."

Linebacker CJ Allen led the Georgia defense with 10 tackles.

No. 9 Georgia 43, No. 5 Ole Miss 35

Oct. 18, 2025 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens, Ga.

ATHENS, Ga. — In an offense-heavy matchup of top-10 teams Saturday afternoon in front of a sellout crowd of 93,033 at Sanford Stadium, and a national television audience on ABC, it was No. 9 Georgia's defense that came through in the fourth quarter against No. 5 Ole Miss. The Rebels scored touchdowns on their first five possessions in the game, but the Bulldogs shut them down in the fourth quarter and pulled out a 43-35 win.

Quarterback Gunner Stockton's fourth touchdown pass of the game, and third to tight end Lawson Luckie, a 7-yarder with 7:29 remaining, gave Georgia the lead for good. It came after the Bulldog defense got its first stop of the game, a three-and-out it had to have. Georgia later added a 42-yard Peyton Woodring field goal with 2:06 to play, and then stopped the Rebels for the third straight drive to seal the win.

Stockton finished 26 of 31 passing for 289 yards and a career-high four touchdowns, while the Bulldogs also rushed for 221 yards on 49 attempts. Georgia out-gained the Rebels 510-351 and had a 15-minute advantage in time of possession: 37:39-22:21.

A 51-yard Woodring field goal gave Georgia a 3-0 lead, but it didn't last long. Ole Miss answered with a 7-yard Trinidad Chambliss run for a touchdown. Georgia followed that with its own scoring drive. After making a great catch for 13 yards on a ball thrown behind him earlier in the drive, Luckie caught an 11-yard touchdown pass on the first play of the second quarter, putting the Bulldogs back in front.

The Rebels regained the lead, 14-10, on Kewan Lacy's 1-yard touchdown run. The back-and-forth continued on the next drive, with Stockton running the ball in from the 22, his longest rush of the season, for a 17-14 lead with 7:13 on the clock.

Ole Miss regained the lead, 21-17, on Lacy's 1-yard rush for a touchdown. On the final play of the half, Woodring made a 35-yard field goal to cut the Rebel lead to 21-20.

The Rebels only needed two plays to find the end zone on the first possession of the second half, with Chambliss connecting with De'Zhaun Stribling for a 75-yard score to push the Rebels' lead to 28-21.

Georgia once again responded with its own scoring drive, this one ending with a 3-yard touchdown pass from Stockton to Luckie. The Bulldogs' 2-point conversion attempt failed, allowing the Rebels to hold onto the lead, 28-26, with 10:02 remaining in the third. Ole Miss extended its lead soon after, going up 35-26 on Chambliss' 2-yard touchdown run.

Georgia's offense continued its very productive day, marching 75 yards in 12 plays and scoring on Stockton's 3-yard touchdown pass to Frazier on the left side. That cut the Rebel lead to 35-33 with 12:56 to go.

The Georgia defense got a three-and-out on Ole Miss' next drive, forcing the game's first punt. The Bulldogs made the most of the stop, taking a 40-35 lead with 7:29 remaining on Stockton's third pass to Luckie, this one covering 7 yards. The defense got two more stops to seal the victory.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"I credit this win to culture. I say it all the time: a culture win is as good as any win in your program. The culture of this team and the toughness and the physicality, it took over the game."

Lawson Luckie caught three touchdown passes against Ole Miss.

No. 5 Georgia 24, Florida 20

Nov. 1, 2025 • EverBank Stadium • Jacksonville, Fla.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. — The fifth-ranked Georgia football team got a 36-yard touchdown run from Chauncey Bowens with 4:36 to play in the game to rally past Florida, 24-20, Saturday at EverBank Stadium. The sellout crowd of 76,770, along with a national television audience on ABC, saw the Bulldogs overcome a second-half deficit and survive for the fourth time in SEC play this season.

Georgia trailed 20-17 midway through the final period when its defense got a big stop on fourth-and-1 at the UGA 18-yard line, and the offense responded by driving for the go-ahead score. Quarterback Gunner Stockton was 20-for-29 passing for 223 yards and two touchdowns, and wide receiver Zachariah Branch had a big day with 10 catches for 112 yards. Linebacker CJ Allen led the defense with 13 tackles.

Georgia got the ball to start the game and moved the 75 yards for a touchdown and a 7-0 lead. A 12-yard pass from Stockton to wide receiver Dillon Bell on third-and-7 at the UGA 28-yard line kept the drive going, and the two connected again later to end the drive. On second-and-7 at the Florida 8, Stockton hit Bell in the end zone on a quick slant to put the Bulldogs in front early.

Florida tied the game with 6:32 left in the first quarter on a one-play drive, completing a 40-yard touchdown pass from DJ Lagway to Eugene Wilson III. The Gators got the ball back soon after, when a Stockton pass was intercepted by defensive back Devin Moore, giving Florida the ball at the Georgia 38. The Gators took a 10-7 lead on Trey Smack's 22-yard field goal with 3:02 to go in the quarter. The Bulldogs tied the game 10-10 with 12 seconds remaining in the first half on Peyton Woodring's 39-yard field goal.

After Georgia's defense forced a three-and-out to open the second half, the Bulldog offense went 74 yards in five plays and took a 17-10 lead on Stockton's 22-yard touchdown pass to Noah Thomas. Earlier in the drive, on third-and-5 at the UGA 31, Stockton hit Branch down the middle for a 42-yard gain.

The Gators tied the game on the ensuing drive, scoring on a 2-yard Jadan Baugh run with 3:37 to play in the third quarter. Florida took a 20-17 lead with 14:52 left in the game on a 54-yard Smack field goal.

Midway through the fourth, Florida had the ball at the Georgia 18 and went for it on fourth-and-1. The Bulldogs' Raylen Wilson and Elijah Griffin stopped the run short of the first down, and the offense took the field down three with 7:54 remaining.

Georgia made the most of the stop, regaining the lead, 24-20, on Bowens' touchdown run up the middle. Stockton and Branch connected for completions of 18 and 13 yards on the drive. The Bulldog defense stopped the Gators again on fourth down on the next drive, with defensive back Ellis Robinson IV breaking up a pass on fourth-and-4 at the Florida 31 with 3:13 to play. Georgia was then able to run out the clock and secure the win.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"Our kids were very resilient. Another night in the SEC. I don't know what else is going on around the country, but when you play in this league, every game comes down to the last few possessions. I thought we managed that well. Played the game, obviously in the fourth, had fourth downs where we were able to get a stop. That made the difference in the game."

Chauncey Bowens ran for a 36-yard TD to put Georgia ahead late.

No. 5 Georgia 41, Mississippi State 21

Nov. 8, 2025 • Davis Wade Stadium • Starkville, Miss.

STARKVILLE, Miss. — The fifth-ranked Georgia football team used a dominant second quarter to pull ahead of Mississippi State and then rolled to a 41-21 win Saturday afternoon in front of a crowd of 53,017 at Davis Wade Stadium and a national television audience on ESPN. Quarterback Gunner Stockton and running back Nate Frazier led an explosive day for the offense, which produced a season-high 567 yards.

Down 7-3 after the opening quarter, Georgia scored 21 straight points in the second to take control and earn its sixth straight win over MSU. It was the 900th win in program history.

Stockton was 18 of 29 passing for 264 yards and the three touchdowns; Frazier needed just 12 carries to reach 181 yards, highlighted by a 59-yard touchdown run in the third quarter and a 33-yarder in the fourth. The Bulldogs as a team piled up 303 yards on the ground.

Safety KJ Bolden led the Georgia defense with 10 tackles, defensive back Joenel Aguero added seven, and linebackers Raylen Wilson and CJ Allen had six each; Wilson also had 1.5 sacks.

State got the ball first and took a 7-0 lead on quarterback Kamario Taylor's 4-yard touchdown run. Georgia got on the scoreboard on the ensuing drive with Peyton Woodring's 49-yard field goal; Stockton and wideout London Humphreys connected on a 36-yard pass to set up the field goal.

Georgia drove all the way down to the State 2-yard line on its next possession, but came up empty after Dillon Bell was stripped and MSU recovered. Georgia got the ball back a few plays later when linebacker Quintavius Johnson knocked the ball out of quarterback Blake Shapen's hands and Bolden recovered the fumble at the State 27. Running back Chauncey Bowens scored on a 4-yard rush to put Georgia ahead 10-7 with 14:04 left in the half.

The Bulldogs went up 17-7 when Stockton hit tight end Oscar Delp for an 8-yard touchdown with 5:09 on the clock. Earlier in the drive, Delp hauled in a 29-yard pass to the State 40. Georgia got a defensive stop on fourth-and-5 at the UGA 23 to get the ball back with 2:25 left in the half. The Bulldogs took a 24-7 lead with 11 seconds left on Stockton's screen pass to the left that Zachariah Branch ran in for a 19-yard touchdown.

Georgia got the ball to start the second half and quickly added to its lead. On second-and-7 at the UGA 41, Frazier got free on the right side and outran everyone for a career-long 59-yard touchdown, making it 31-7. The long run put Frazier over 100 yards in a game for the first time this season and the second time in the sophomore's career.

On UGA's next drive, Stockton found Noah Thomas near the 50 and the receiver did the rest, scoring a 64-yard touchdown to push the Bulldog lead to 38-7 with 9:58 to play in the third. Georgia's final points came on a 46-yard Woodring field goal early in the fourth quarter.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"We had good leadership this week. Our players believe in the way we practice, and that conditioning level was huge today. It was hot. It was way hotter than we expected. ... I thought we were well conditioned. And we ran the ball and we stopped the run, so that was two big things. I'm proud of our guys."

Nate Frazier ran for a career-high 181 yards against MSU.

ATHENS, Ga. — The fifth-ranked Georgia football team played to win again and again against No. 10 Texas on Saturday night at Sanford Stadium. The Bulldogs were aggressive on fourth down, even in their territory, and they even tried and converted a surprise onside kick after scoring early in the fourth quarter. The sellout crowd of 93,033, along with a national television audience on ABC, saw that aggression pay off in a 35-10 win.

Georgia quarterback Gunner Stockton tied a career high with four touchdown passes, wide receiver Noah Thomas caught two of them, and the Bulldogs scored touchdowns on their first two drives to go ahead 14-3, and then finished strong with three more in the fourth quarter.

Stockton, who also ran for a touchdown, finished 24 of 29 passing for 229 yards, and Georgia out-gained Texas 357-274. Texas quarterback Arch Manning was held to 251 yards, with a touchdown and an interception, on 27-for-43 passing; he was also sacked three times. Georgia's defense held Texas to 23 yards rushing on 17 attempts. Linebacker Chris Cole led the defense with seven tackles, including one of UGA's seven tackles for loss.

Texas got the ball to start the game, and took a 3-0 lead on a 33-yard Mason Shipley field goal. Georgia answered with its own good drive, and it ended with Stockton throwing a 17-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Noah Thomas for a 7-3 Bulldog lead. The ending of Georgia's second drive was the same as the first, with Stockton hitting Thomas in the end zone, this time from the 4, to make it 14-3 Bulldogs.

In the third quarter, Texas' defense picked off a Stockton pass at the Bulldog 36-yard line, and the Longhorns later turned the turnover into a touchdown. Manning hit Ryan Wingo for a 7-yard score with 5:27 to go in the third quarter, cutting Georgia's lead to 14-10. It was the first score for either team since the Bulldogs' touchdown with 12:49 to go in the first half, a span of 11 drives.

Georgia made it two scoring drives in a row by getting aggressive. After converting a fourth-and-1 on its own 36 with a pass from Stockton to running back Chauncey Bowens for 10 yards, Georgia drove down to the UT 30. On first down, Stockton threw over the top to London Humphreys for a 30-yard score and a 21-10 lead with 14:20 to play in the game.

Georgia's aggressiveness continued on the kickoff, with the Bulldogs converting an onside kick that running back Cash Jones recovered at the UGA 47. It was Georgia's first successful onside kick since 2013, and it led to a touchdown. The Bulldogs went 53 yards in nine plays, taking a 28-10 lead with 8:53 to go on Stockton's fourth touchdown pass of the night. This one, a 6-yarder, went to tight end Lawson Luckie on the right side of the end zone.

Georgia pushed its lead to 35-10 with 4:43 to play on Stockton's four-yard rush for a touchdown.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"Our offense, it's like a big, strong anaconda just squeezing you. You get squeezed, and you finally catch a little air, and then they're back trying to suffocate you (after the onside kick). So it was a big momentum play, and it would have been, every one of y'all would have thought I was an idiot if it didn't work. So that's okay, too, that's part of football."

Noah Thomas caught two touchdown passes against Texas.

No. 4 Georgia 35, Charlotte 3

Nov. 22, 2025 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens, Ga.

ATHENS, Ga. — The fourth-ranked Georgia football team cruised to a 35-3 win over Charlotte on Saturday in front of a sellout crowd of 93,033 at Sanford Stadium and a national television audience on SEC Network. On Senior Day, it was a freshman running back, Bo Walker, who had a breakout game, scoring the first three touchdowns of his career.

In the first meeting between the Bulldogs and 49ers, Georgia took control early, scoring on a pair of Nate Frazier rushing touchdowns in the first quarter. By halftime, after a pair of Walker touchdown runs in the second, the lead was 28-3. Georgia out-gained the 49ers 449-169, with 30 first downs to Charlotte's seven.

Bulldog quarterback Gunner Stockton played a little more than a half, finishing 17 of 21 for 196 yards. Backup Ryan Puglisi took over midway through the third quarter and was 7 of 11 passing for 49 yards.

Georgia took a 7-0 lead on its second possession of the game, driving 60 yards in nine plays and scoring on a 2-yard Frazier run. The touchdown was set up by a 29-yard completion from Stockton to tight end Lawson Luckie down to the 2-yard line.

On Georgia's next possession, a 17-yard completion to wideout Zachariah Branch got things going. On fourth-and-1 at the 49er 34, Stockton dove for the first down, and it was Frazier that again found the end zone, rushing the ball in from the 7 to make it 14-0.

The Bulldogs were already going to their bench early in the second quarter, and Walker, a reserve with 13 carries all season heading into the game, put Georgia up 21-0 with 11:29 left in the half. Walker ran the ball in from the 15 for his first career touchdown. His second came soon after.

Charlotte got a first down on the ensuing drive, its first of the game, but the drive didn't last long. That's because three plays later, Georgia cornerback Ellis Robinson IV picked off a Grayson Loftis pass at the Bulldog 38. It was the redshirt freshman's team-high third interception of the season.

Georgia once again moved the ball through and past the 49er defense, and once again it was Walker doing the scoring. Two plays after Stockton hit Branch for a 19-yard gain to the Charlotte 21, Walker ran the ball in from the 12 to push the Bulldog lead to 28-0 with 3:27 left in the half.

The 49ers made their first big play on defense late in the half, intercepting a Stockton pass with 38 seconds to go. Liam Boyd kicked a 42-yard field goal as time expired to make it 28-3 at the half.

In the third quarter, Stockton hit wide receiver Noah Thomas for a 38-yard gain down to the 49er 11, and Walker later made it 35-3 with a 3-yard touchdown run. Walker finished the game with nine carries for 47 yards, as well as the first two receptions of his career.

In the fourth, the 49ers were threatening inside the Bulldog 20, when freshman safety Daniel Okonkwo pulled in the first interception of his career in the end zone to give the ball back to the offense with 5:59 remaining. Georgia then ran out the clock to close out the win.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"(Bo Walker) is a young kid who's a good back. We got to watch him play up at Rabun Gap his senior year and we thought he was a really good player, and he's gotten better and better. ... He has great vision, he's low to the ground, he's really hard to tackle. I love his spirit because he smiles every day at practice and he cuts up."

Bo Walker scored three touchdowns against the 49ers.

- It was the Bulldogs' 10th win of the season, marking the eighth time in head coach Kirby Smart's 10 seasons at the helm that Georgia has reached double-digit victories. Georgia's senior class improved to 49-5 overall and 25-1 on Dooley Field.
- Through Georgia's first 10 games, freshman running back Bo Walker had 13 carries for 52 yards. Against the 49ers, he ran nine times for 48 yards and scored the first three touchdowns of his career. Georgia's other two scores were also on the ground, with running back Nate Frazier scoring from the 2 and 7 to put the Bulldogs up 14-0 in the first quarter.
- Receivers Noah Thomas and Zachariah Branch led the way in the passing game with four catches each. Branch is up to 63 receptions for the season, tying him with former star tight end Brock Bowers (2022) for second most in a season in program history. Brice Hunter had 76 catches in 1993.

No. 4 Georgia 16, No. 23 Georgia Tech 9

Nov. 28, 2025 • Mercedes-Benz Stadium • Atlanta, Ga.

ATLANTA — The fourth-ranked Georgia football team never got much going offensively Friday against No. 23 Georgia Tech, but the Bulldogs in all phases of the game did enough to earn the team its record eighth straight win over the Yellow Jackets, 16-9, in front of a crowd of 73,728 at Mercedes-Benz Stadium and a national television audience on ABC.

Georgia had seven-game win streaks against its rivals a couple of times over the years, but Friday's grind-it-out win made it eight in a row for the first time in a series that began back in 1893. The game came down to the final play, when the Bulldog defense stopped a Hail Mary pass into the end zone.

The Bulldogs trailed 3-0 after the opening quarter before scoring 13 unanswered in the second to take the lead for good. Wide receiver Zachariah Branch scored the game's only touchdown on a 7-yard reception in the second. Bulldog kicker Peyton Woodring connected on all three of his field-goal attempts.

Georgia's ground game did much of the work for the offense, rushing for 190 of the Bulldogs' 260 yards. Quarterback Gunner Stockton was held to 11 of 21 passing for 70 yards with a touchdown and an interception. Nate Frazier led the running backs with 108 yards on 16 carries. Georgia's defense held Tech to 250 yards, including 69 yards rushing on 23 attempts.

Yellow Jackets linebacker Tah'j Butler made the game's first big play, intercepting a Stockton pass near midfield and returning it to the Bulldog 37-yard line. Tech later got a 30-yard Aidan Birr field goal for a 3-0 lead. Georgia answered with a 22-yard Woodring field goal, tying the game 3-3 with 9:42 left in the first half.

A defensive stop and a shanked punt by Tech gave the Bulldogs the ball back at their 45 with 8:25 on the clock. And Georgia made the most of the good field position, driving the 55 yards in nine plays and taking a 10-3 lead with 4:35 to go in the half on Stockton's 7-yard touchdown pass to Branch. The pair connected a few plays earlier for a 24-yard gain to the 12.

Georgia's defense forced another three-and-out on the ensuing drive, and the Bulldogs got the ball back at their 33 with 3:15 on the clock. They couldn't get back into the end zone, but Woodring pushed the lead to 13-3 with a 30-yard field goal with a second left in the half. Birr's 44-yarder cutting Georgia's lead to 13-6 with 4:33 left in the third.

The Bulldogs later pushed their lead to 16-6 with 14:10 remaining on Woodring's 50-yard field goal. Birr's 41-yard field goal made it 16-9 with 3:30 remaining. Tech got the ball back with 13 seconds left, needing a touchdown to force overtime. The Yellow Jackets got the ball to the Bulldog 44 with one second remaining, enough time for a Hail Mary pass. Georgia knocked it down in the end zone to end the game.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"That was a physical, physical, tough game. Our guys were very resilient during it and found ways. Thought the defense really stepped up today. (Glenn) Schumann and the staff did an incredible job putting plans together. We did what we had to do offensively. Got to continue to get better. But really proud of this team."

Georgia made it eight wins in a row against Georgia Tech.

- Georgia and Tech played for the first time in 1893. Since then, the Bulldogs had won seven in a row in the series multiple times, but Friday's win made it eight straight for UGA for the first time, matching Tech's longest run (1949-56). Georgia now leads the all-time series 73-39-5.
- Kicker Peyton Woodring has been critical for the Bulldogs all season, and Friday was no exception. He connected on field goals of 22, 30 and 50 yards. The junior has made 15 of 16 attempts this season, including all three attempts from 50 or longer.
- Georgia's defense held Tech to a season-low 9 points. Safety KJ Bolden led the way with nine tackles and linebacker Quintavious Johnson had six. Cornerback Ellis Robinson IV intercepted a pass inside the UGA 5-yard line in the third quarter, giving him a team-high four this season.
- While the UGA passing game was held to 70 yards, Georgia got 190 on the ground. Nate Frazier had 108 yards on 16 carries for his third career 100-yard game, Josh McCray ran 13 times for 43 yards, and quarterback Gunner Stockton added 42 on 15 attempts.
- With Texas A&M's loss to Texas, the Bulldogs officially earned a fifth straight trip to the SEC Championship Game, tying Florida (1992-96) for the most consecutive appearances all-time. This will be Georgia's 13th appearance in the title game.
- The captains for the quarterback Gunner Stockton, linebacker Quintavious Johnson, tight end Oscar Delp and linebacker Raylen Wilson. The Bulldogs won the toss and deferred to the second half.

2025 SEC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

No. 3 Georgia 28, No. 9 Alabama 7

Dec. 6, 2025 • Mercedes-Benz Stadium • Atlanta, Ga.

ATLANTA — The third-ranked Georgia football team captured its second straight SEC championship and got a bit of revenge against No. 9 Alabama on Saturday night in front of a crowd of 77,247 at Mercedes-Benz Stadium and a national television audience on ABC. After losing 24-21 to the Crimson Tide in Athens back in September, the Bulldogs dominated for long stretches of their 28-7 win to clinch the program's 16th SEC crown.

Georgia out-gained Alabama 297-209, and Bulldog quarterback Gunner Stockton, the game's Most Valuable Player, finished 20 of 26 for 156 yards and three touchdowns. Tide QB Ty Simpson was held to 212 yards on 19 of 39 passing, was sacked three times for minus-23 yards, and threw an interception. On the ground, Georgia ran 41 times for 141 yards; the Bulldog defense held the Tide to minus-3 yards on 16 attempts.

It was Georgia's special teams that made the game's first huge play. Midway through the opening quarter, with Alabama's Blake Doud punting on fourth down from the Tide 21-yard line, the Bulldogs' Cole Speer got free into the backfield and blocked the punt. Georgia's Justin Williams recovered the ball at the Alabama 25 and returned it four yards to the 21.

Georgia's offense soon got into the end zone. On first down, Nate Frazier ran 14 yards to the 7. Three plays later, Stockton rolled to his right and hit running back Roderick Robinson II for an easy touchdown and a 7-0 lead with 4:36 to go in the first quarter. It was Robinson's first touchdown of the season and first since 2023.

It was Georgia's defense that made the next big play, with cornerback Daylen Everette intercepting a Simpson pass around the UGA 27. Safety KJ Bolden tipped the pass just ahead of Everette, and the Bulldog offense was soon back on the field late in the first quarter.

Georgia pushed its lead to 14-0 with 8:43 to play in the half when the Bulldogs capped a 14-play drive with a 5-yard touchdown from Stockton to wideout Dillon Bell. A few plays earlier, Bell had a 19-yard reception to move the ball to the 4.

A sack by JaCorey Thomas on third-and-9 at the Tide 26 on the opening drive of the second half forced a punt, and Zachariah Branch's 24-yard punt return gave the Bulldogs great field position at the Tide 40. Georgia made the most of the return and the field position, taking a 21-0 lead with 10:47 to go in the third quarter on Frazier's 9-yard.

Georgia led 21-0 heading into the fourth quarter, with Alabama just passing 100 yards of offense on the final play of the third. Alabama finally got into the end zone with 12:33 to play in the game, scoring on a 23-yard pass from Simpson to receiver Germie Bernard.

The Bulldogs' final points came when Stockton hit Branch for a 13-yard touchdown and a 28-7 lead with 6:51 to go. Georgia again stopped the Tide on fourth down, with 3:22 remaining at the Bulldog 18. The Bulldogs then took over, and a Chauncey Bowens 19-yard rush gave room to run the clock out.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"All the credit goes to the players who have had a very long, tough, hard season. The kids in our program buy into hard. I appreciate their toughness in the way they do things; that pays off in the long run. To win back-to-back SEC championships, it's every kid in this footprint's dream, and an honor to be at Georgia and to be the head coach here and win games like this."

Zachariah Branch led the Georgia offense with five receptions for 53 yards and a touchdown.

NEW ORLEANS — The No. 3-ranked Georgia football team's season came to an end late Thursday night in a 39-34 loss to No. 6 Ole Miss in the quarterfinals of the College Football Playoff. In front of a crowd of 68,371 in the Caesars Superdome and a national television audience on ESPN, Rebel Lucas Carneiro kicked a 47-yard field goal with six seconds left to break a 34-34 tie in a dramatic Allstate Sugar Bowl.

After Ole Miss went ahead, Georgia tried a backward pass across the field on the ensuing kickoff and the ball went out of bounds off an end zone pylon, resulting in a safety. Down 34-24 in the fourth quarter, Georgia came back with 10 straight points to tie the game, but came up short at the end.

Ole Miss went ahead 6-0 in the first quarter on two long Carneiro field goals, one from 55 yards and next from 56. Georgia quarterback Gunner Stockton then put the Bulldogs ahead on a 12-yard touchdown run with 13:37 left in the half.

The Rebels answered with their first touchdown on the next drive, taking a 12-7 lead on quarterback Trinidad Chambliss' 3-yard pass to Luke Hasz. Georgia regained the lead on the next drive when Stockton ran the ball in from the 1 for a 14-12 lead with 4:05 to go in the half.

The Bulldog defense forced the game's first turnover on Ole Miss' next drive and turned it into points. Defensive lineman Elijah Griffin stripped running back Kewan Lacy of the ball, and cornerback Daylen Everette scooped it up and returned it 47 yards for a touchdown, pushing Georgia's lead to 21-12 with 2:34 left in the second.

Ole Miss cut the Georgia lead to 21-19 on Lacy's 7-yard touchdown run with 4:51 to go in the third. Facing a fourth-and-5 at its 30 on its next drive, Georgia executed a fake punt for a first down. Backup wide receiver Landon Roldan threw a pass to tight end Lawson Luckie for a 16-yard gain. Two plays later, Stockton hit Colbie Young for 36 yards to the Ole Miss 23. The Bulldogs had to settle for a Woodring 37-yard field goal, pushing the lead to 24-19 with 30 seconds left in the third.

With 11:29 to go in the game, Ole Miss took a 27-24 lead on Lacy's 5-yard touchdown run and a successful two-point conversion. Ole Miss later scored on a 13-yard pass from Chambliss to Harrison Wallace III, pushing its lead to 34-24 with 9:02 remaining.

Georgia cut the lead to 34-31 when Stockton found Zachariah Branch in the left corner of the end zone for an 18-yard touchdown with 7:03 left. The Bulldog defense then forced a quick three-and-out, and the offense took over at the Georgia 36 with 5:36 to play. The Bulldogs moved the ball to their 48, where they faced a fourth-and-9 with 3:13 to play. Stockton hit Branch for a 16-yard gain to keep the drive going, and later had a first down at the 8. Unable to get into the end zone, Georgia's Woodring tied the game 34-34 with a 24-yard field goal with 55 seconds remaining.

Ole Miss was able to move the ball down into field-goal range and pulled ahead for good on Carneiro's 47-yarder.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"It was a back-and-forth game. It was an incredible college football game. It's what the CFP was built for, to have battles like that. And that was basically every conference game we had this year. I felt like every game was like that one: back, forth, back, forth. Plays being made all over."

Cornerback Daylen Everette scored on a 47-yard fumble return.

1984 NCAA TOP SIX AWARD
TERRY HOAGE
ROV (1980-83)

Georgia's two-time All-America and Academic All-America roverback Terry Hoage probably best characterized the ideal of the student-athlete. For his achievements both on and off the field, Hoage became Georgia's first recipient of the NCAA Top VI Award at the NCAA convention in January, 1984.

The Top Six Award is presented annually to student-athletes who have achieved athletic success, shown leadership qualities and displayed academic prowess.

He set a school record with 12 interceptions during the 1982 season. He placed fifth in the 1983 Heisman Trophy balloting — the highest finish ever for a defensive back at that time.

Hoage maintained a 3.7 grade point average in Genetics.

1998 TOP EIGHT AWARD
MATT STINCHCOMB
OT (1995-98)

One of the most decorated players in Georgia football history, Matt Stinchcomb, was honored with the 1998 NCAA Top Eight Award. The Top VIII Award is presented annually to eight student-athletes for their achievement in athletics, academics, and leadership. A two-time All-America OT, two time Academic All-America, and national Academic All-American of the Year in 1998, Stinchcomb also was a two-time member of the AFCAGood Works Team recognizing outstanding community service. A finalist for the Rotary Lombardi Award, he received post-graduate scholarships from the NCAA, National Football Foundation, and won the Burger King Scholar-Athlete of the Year for Division 1-A. He graduated with a 3.96 grade point average in business.

2002 TOP EIGHT AWARD
JON STINCHCOMB
OT (1999-2002)

Following in the footsteps of his older brother Matt, Bulldog lineman Jon Stinchcomb became the third Georgia football player to receive the prestigious NCAA Top VIII Award, presented to eight student-athletes for accomplishments in both academics and athletics as well as character and leadership.

A semifinalist for the 2002 Lombardi Award, Stinchcomb was named to the Walter Camp All-America team and the Verizon/CoSIDA Academic All-America squad. A first-team All-Southeastern Conference selection by the AP and the SEC Coaches, he anchored the Bulldog line in leading Georgia to a record-setting 13-1 record, SEC title and Sugar Bowl victory.

He was the male student-athlete representative to the University's athletics board of directors. He held a 3.75 grade point average in microbiology.

1997 NCAA TEDDY
ROOSEVELT AWARD
BILLY PAYNE, DE (1966-68)

Billy Payne, president and CEO of the Atlanta Committee for the Olympic Games, (A C O G) received the Theodore Roosevelt Award — the NCAA's highest honor — during the annual convention in January, 1997.

The award is presented annually to a distinguished citizen who is a former college athlete and has exemplified the ideals and purposes of college athletics by demonstrating a continuing interest and concern for physical fitness and sport.

Payne, a three-year letterman for the Bulldogs (1966-68), graduated from Georgia in 1969 and earned his law degree from the University in 1973. After a successful law practice in Atlanta, he began his work of bringing the Olympic Games to Atlanta in 1988.

NCAA SILVER ANNIVERSARY AWARD

(presented to former student-athletes, on the 25th anniversary of their senior year, who have distinguished themselves in their chosen career field)

1996 NCAA SILVER ANNIVERSARY AWARD
DR. TOM LYONS, C (1968-70)

Former University of Georgia All-America center Dr. Tom Lyons, director of the Center for Women's Care and Reproductive Surgery in Atlanta, was one of six selected nationally to receive the 1996 award.

Lyons was chosen to present the acceptance response in behalf of all Silver Anniversary winners at the 1996 NCAA convention, a group which included football legends Joe Theisman of Notre Dame and Jack Youngblood of Florida and track great Marty Liquori of Villanova.

Since beginning his medical practice full time, Lyons has become one of the nation's leading physicians in the field of obstetrics and gynecology.

A two-time All-America and All-SEC lineman (1969 and '70), Lyons was awarded the prestigious NCAA Post-Graduate Scholarship and National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame Post-Graduate Fellowship. He was a six-year starter with the NFL's Denver Broncos, attending medical school and completed his internship and residency at the University of Colorado during his NFL playing career.

1986 NCAA SILVER ANNIVERSARY AWARD
FRAN TARKENTON, QB (1958-60)

Fran Tarkenton, All-America quarterback at Georgia and All-Pro with both the Minnesota Vikings and New York Giants of the NFL, became the Bulldogs' first recipient of the prestigious NCAA Silver Anniversary Award in 1986.

A native of Athens who first played in Sanford Stadium as part of the Athens YMCA's youth games prior to Bulldog contests, Tarkenton was a two-time first-team All-Southeastern Conference selection and led Georgia to the 1959 SEC Championship.

After throwing four touchdowns in his first NFL game, Tarkenton enjoyed an illustrious 18-year pro career and was named the league MVP in 1975. When he retired from the NFL in 1978, Tarkenton was the league's all-time leader in passing attempts (6,467) completions (3,686), yardage (47,003) and touchdowns (342). Vikings coach Bud Grant said Tarkenton was "the greatest quarterback ever to play the game."

The same year Tarkenton received the NCAA's Silver Anniversary Award, he was also inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The following year, 1987, Tarkenton was enshrined into the College Football Hall of Fame as well.

Nothing like being "Between the Hedges" at Georgia's Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium

With a $25 million expansion completed in 2003 and another $8 million in 2004, Sanford Stadium added a second upper deck on the north side and 27 new north side SkySuites bringing the new stadium capacity to 92,746--the ninth largest on-campus stadium in the country. A two-phase renovation in 2023-24 brought a slight capacity increase to 93,033.

Named for the late Dr. S. V. Sanford, former president of the University and Chancellor of the University system, Georgia's Sanford Stadium celebrated its 75th anniversary in 2004. An overflow crowd of 30,000 saw the stadium's first game on October 12, 1929, when Yale University made its only trip South. Georgia won the now famous game when a young sophomore end from Macon, Vernon "Catfish" Smith, scored all 15 of the Bulldogs' points. Final score, Georgia 15, Yale 0.

Through the years, the stadium has experienced various expansion projects. In 1940, lights were added to the field level paving the way to the first Sanford Stadium night game, a 7-7 tie between Georgia and Kentucky on October 26, 1940.

Eventually, the East end of the stadium was enclosed, more lights added, and the capacity increased to 82,122. The 1991 project enclosed the West end at a cost of $3.7 million. The price tag was rather hefty, considering that the original price to build the stadium was a mere $360,000.

Sanford Stadium added yet another chapter to its history by hosting the medal round of the 1996 Olympic men's and women's soccer competition, watched via television by over 3 billion people around the world.

Prior to Georgia's 2019 home opener, the playing field at Sanford Stadium was formally renamed in honor of Vince Dooley, the Bulldogs' all-time winningest head coach. Dooley served as head football coach of the Bulldogs from 1964 through 1988 and director of athletics from 1979 to 2004. As head coach, he won 201 games, one national championship and six SEC championships. While Dooley was athletic director, UGA won 23 national championships and 78 SEC team championships.

The Centennial Olympic Games of 1996 added an historic chapter to the 70-plus year history of Sanford Stadium. The home of the Bulldogs hosted the medal round of the men's and women's Olympic soccer in July, 1996.

The largest crowd ever to witness a women's soccer game saw the United States defeat China, 2-1, to claim the first-ever women's Olympic gold medal in the sport.

DR. STEADMAN V. SANFORD

Born August 20, 1871, Dr. Steadman Vincent Sanford joined the Georgia faculty in 1903 and instantly became one of the University's most popular people. He founded the Henry W. Grady School of Journalism in 1921, served as University Dean from 1927-32, and held the post of University president and chancellor until 1935 when he was named chancellor of the entire University System of Georgia. He also held the position of faculty chairman of athletics while on the UGA faculty. He was the force behind the construction of Sanford Stadium in 1929 and was termed many times as "the best friend of athletics." He was largely responsible for persuading the Bulldogs of Yale to make their first trip ever south of the Mason-Dixon line to play the dedication game of Sanford Stadium in 1929. He died September 15, 1945.

* later became head coach

Dr. Charles Herty (Georgia), 1892

Herty was Georgia's first coach, but in those days he was referred to as the "trainer." Commonly known as the father of Georgia football, he was a member of the University's faculty working as a professor in the chemistry department. Herty was a graduate of Georgia and received his Ph.D. at John Hopkins University. While at the Baltimore school he saw a different version of the sport of Rugby, referred to as football. Herty returned to Athens in the fall of 1891 as a member of the faculty. He gathered some students and told them of the games that he had seen. Herty initiated the formation of a team by helping the students prepare a field of play or "gridiron". The University's Glee Club contributed the princely sum of $50.00 to finance the removal of rocks and the filling of holes on the field. Goal posts were set up and Herty became the first coach of a Georgia football team. Herty later earned national fame as a scientist in the development of the turpentine and pine pulpwood industry. Georgia's football field was later renamed in his honor.

Ernest Brown (UGA), 1893

Brown was a Georgia graduate student who volunteered to coach the Bulldogs during the 1893 season. Brown led the Bulldogs to a 2-2-1 season, and also played halfback that season.

Robert Winston, 1894

Winston was an Englishman and former Rugby player and coach who had coached Yale, Amherst, Rochester and Syracuse prior to arriving in Athens in the fall of 1894. Winston was Georgia's first "paid coach" and was known to put Georgia's players through some rigorous training prior to the season. He coached Georgia to a 10-8 win over Auburn and four other victories during that 5-1-0 season.

Glenn "Pop" Warner (Cornell), 1895-1896

Warner is a name that is synonymous with the game of football. A Cornell graduate, Warner came to Athens in September of 1895. He was signed to a $34-a-week salary for ten weeks in his first season and received an increase to $40 for his second season. He coached the Bulldogs, then known as the Red and Black, for two seasons, and led Georgia to one of its three undefeated seasons—4-0 in 1896. Warner later went on to coach at the Carlisle Indian School, where he coached the legendary Jim Thorpe, and later at Pitt and Stanford.

Charles McCarthy (Brown), 1897-1898

McCarthy, a Brown University graduate, became Georgia's fifth head football coach and was almost the school's last. McCarthy inherited a fine Georgia team from Warner, including an outstanding quarterback named Richard "Von" Gammon. Gammon was critically injured in a game against Virginia, and died later that day. Although many called for the abolishment of football, the sport survived after a plea to state government officials by Gammon's mother. In 1898 McCarthy coached the Georgia squad to victories over Tech and Vanderbilt, but suffered a controversial and disputed 18-17 loss to Auburn.

Gordon Saussy (Cornell), 1899

Saussy was a former Cornell player who came to Athens from Savannah and at the age of 26, coached Georgia for one season. During the 1899 season his Bulldogs defeated both Georgia Tech and Clemson and played Auburn to a controversial 0-0 tie. The Tigers led 11-6 with a minute to play when the contest was disrupted by an unruly mob that prevented the official conclusion of the game. Saussy went on to become Mayor of Savannah and Chairman of the State of Georgia Bicentennial Celebration (1933), bringing President Roosevelt to Savannah. He was awarded the first Lucas Trophy by the City of Savannah and later brought to Savannah Dr. Charles Herty, the father of pulp paper production and Georgia's first coach. Dr. Herty was living in Saussy's home when he passed away.

E.E. Jones (Princeton), 1900

Jones succeeded Saussy at the helm of Georgia's program but didn't fare much better. He was a Princeton graduate that came to Athens on the recommendation of university benefactor Arthur Poe. His team finished 2-4, lacked offensive output, and was outscored 159 to 28 in their six contests.

Billy Reynolds (Princeton), 1901-1902

Reynolds came to UGA from the University of North Carolina, where he had coached the previous four years. Reynolds, a Princeton graduate, inherited a below average team, but in two seasons he was able to turn the Georgia program around. After a woeful 1-5-2 season in 1901, his 1902 squad went 4-2-1, with victories over Alabama and Auburn.

M.M. Dickinson (UGA), 1903, 1905

Dickinson came to UGA at the turn of the century as a transfer from Mercer University. While at Georgia he played football and baseball on the 1900, 1901 and 1902 teams. In football he was a halfback and baseball a catcher. He was Capt. of the 1901 baseball team. After graduation he coached both sports at the University in 1903, leading the football team to a 3-4 record with wins over Tech and Auburn. He played professional baseball in the Texas League in 1904 and returned to Athens in 1905 to coach football and baseball. The 1905 team won only one game against Dahlgonega, 16-12, and lost five. Dickinson left Athens in 1905 and entered the newspaper business, where he worked until his death in 1950.

Charles A. Barnard (Harvard), 1904

Barnard, a native Bostonian, was none too popular with his players and became more and more unpopular to fans as his team lost five consecutive games after their opening 52-0 win over Florida.

W.S. "Bull" Whitney (Syracuse), 1906-1907

Whitney was a Syracuse graduate that came to the University in 1906 from North Carolina A & M where he had gone undefeated the previous season. He did not achieve the same success, however. During the 1906 season, the forward pass was legalized. Whitney tried to take advantage of this new play, but it was an errant pass that led to Georgia's first defeat of that season. His 1906 team went 2-4-1 and was part of the "Ringer" controversy in the 1907 Tech game that forced his vacating the coaching duties to interim coach Branch Bocock who coached the final three games of that season. Whitney was very superstitious and would not reveal his starting lineup until just before kickoff.

Branch Bocock (Georgetown), 1908

Bocock was a Georgetown graduate and former player who took the reins of the Georgia program after Whitney. Bocock worked in the law office of Judge Hamilton McWhorter, and it was McWhorter that allowed Bocock to leave the office in the afternoons to train the Georgia team. Bocock led Georgia to a 5-2-1 record in 1908. Perhaps his biggest coaching win was when his Georgia team upset Auburn 6-0 in 1907 when he was the interim coach after Whitney left Georgia after the Tech game.

J. Coulter and Frank Dobson (Brown), 1909

Coulter and Dobson served almost as "co-coaches" of the Georgia team in 1909. Coulter, a Brown University graduate, had no previous head coaching experience and was unable to get the Georgia offense in gear. So he hired Frank Dobson, a Roanoke, Va., native who had assisted John W. Heisman at Tech. He inserted several trick plays into the Georgia offense, and they became the talk of Athens, but that still didn't prevent UGA from going 1-4-2. Dobson moved on to Clemson in 1910, where he was its first paid football coach and also the school's baseball and first basketball coach.

W.A. Cunningham (Vanderbilt), 1910-1919

Cunningham gave the Georgia program what it had so desperately needed at that juncture in its history—continuity and a winner. Until Cunningham, a Vanderbilt graduate, arrived in Athens, the Georgia coaching post had been held by 13 coaches in 18 years. Cunningham was hired by Dr. Steadman Vincent Sanford and remained coach for nine years. He coached Georgia's first All-American, Bob McWhorter, and the legendary George "Kid" Woodruff. He led Georgia to seven winning seasons, and an overall record of 43-18-9. Cunningham entered the Army when the United States entered World War I, and came back to coach one more year, before re-entering the Army where he reached the rank of General.

Herman J. Stegeman (Chicago) 1920-1922

Stegeman was a 1919 graduate of the University of Chicago, where he played under the legendary Amos Alonzo Stagg. He was sent to Athens by the Army to install a physical training program for the University's R.O.T.C. students. Stegeman also doubled as an assistant under W.A. Cunningham and later assumed his role as head coach of the program in 1920. Stegeman was the coach of the original "Bulldogs" of 1920 that went 8-0-1 and won the Southern Conference Championship. Stegeman coached two more years and had a 20-6-3 career mark at the helm of the Georgia program. Stegeman's contributions to the University were not solely limited to coaching the football team. He also coached baseball, basketball, track, and held the positions of Athletic Director and Dean of Male Students. Stegeman remained at Georgia for 18 more years as Athletic Director and Dean of Male Students. Stegeman Coliseum on the Georgia campus is named in his honor.

George Cecil "Kid" Woodruff (UGA), 1923-1927

Woodruff, a Capt. and star on the 1911 Georgia team, returned to his alma mater in 1923 as its head football coach. Woodruff introduced the Notre Dame "Box 4" shift offense to southern football.

He had witnessed the effectiveness of the offense when the Fightin' Irish destroyed Tech 35-7 in 1923. He decided that he wanted to implement the same system at Georgia. Woodruff brought three of Rockne's disciples, Frank Thomas and Harry Mehre, and later Jim Crowley to tutor the Georgia men about the finer points of the most popular offense of the day. Woodruff, an extremely successful businessman from Columbus drew a salary of only a dollar per year, and Georgia got more than its money's worth from him. Woodruff's 1927 squad went 9-1 and won the Southern Conference Championship, and he went on to compile a 32-16-1 record over his five seasons at the helm. His most notable accomplishment might be that he gave three legendary coaches their start in the profession: Thomas of Alabama, Mehre of Georgia and Ole Miss and Crowley of Michigan State and Fordham. The football practice fields behind the Butts-Mehre building are named for Woodruff.

Harry Mehre (Notre Dame) 1928-1937

Mehre came to UGA as an assistant coach on the recommendation of Knute Rockne. Mehre took over the head coaching duties in 1928 and led Georgia to a 59-34-6 record in his ten years as coach. He was a master at getting his team prepared for the big game, and perhaps none bigger than Georgia's 15-0 victory over Yale in the dedication game of Sanford Stadium in 1929. Mehre was the only coach in the country to knock off Yale five straight times when Yale was at its height. These victories over Yale and other eastern schools brought Georgia to national prominence. Mehre also led the Bulldogs to a 7-7 tie against the "Seven Blocks of Granite," undefeated Fordham, and knocked them out of the Rose Bowl. Mehre left Georgia in 1937 to assume the head coaching duties at Ole Miss where he remained for eight seasons and compiled a 39-26-1 record. Mehre left Ole Miss in 1945 and became a soft drink wholesaler and football analyst for the ATLANTA JOURNAL for 22 years. The Butts-Mehre Heritage Hall on the University of Georgia campus is named for him.

Joel Hunt (Texas A&M), 1938

Hunt came to the University in the winter of 1938 and remained for only one season. He was a star player at Texas A&M and won that school's award for being the top athlete in 1929 when he scored 19 touchdowns for the Aggies. After serving an assistantship at LSU he came to Athens and guided the Bulldogs, Capt.ed by Quinton Lumpkin, to a 5-4-1 record in the 1938 season. Hunt never captured the favor of Georgia's fans and alumni and left Athens after just one season. Perhaps Hunt's greatest accomplishment was leaving a little-known line coach behind to succeed him, Wally Butts. Hunt went on to coach at the University of Wyoming and later returned to LSU.

Wally Butts (Mercer), 1939-1960

Butts came to UGA as an assistant under one-year head coach Joel Hunt and remained for 22 years at the head of Georgia's program. He was known as the 'Little Round Man' to most fans, but as a bona fide coaching genius to others in the profession. He led the Bulldogs to previously unparalleled success with six bowl appearances, four SEC championships, 140 victories and an undefeated season in 1946. He was known as an advocate of the passing game and brought that to the forefront of offensive thinking in Southern collegiate play. He coached a Heisman winner (Frank Sinkwich, 1942), a Maxwell award winner (Charley Trippi, 1946), and the "Peerless Pilot" Francis Tarkenton. Butts resigned in 1960, but stayed on at Georgia as Athletic Director until his retirement in 1963. He later went on to a highly successful career in the insurance business until his death in 1973. The Butts-Mehre Heritage Hall on the University of Georgia campus is named in his honor.

Johnny Griffith (UGA), 1961- 1963

Griffith was a former Bulldog player and member of the undefeated 1946 team, and succeeded the legendary Butts by taking the reins of the Georgia program on January 6, 1961. Griffith was known as an excellent recruiter in his days as a Georgia assistant from 1956-1960. He was unable to establish a winning program in those years after Butts, and was a combined 1-8 against Florida, Auburn, and Tech. His biggest coaching victory was a 30-21 upset win over Auburn in 1962. He did coach one of Georgia's all-time greatest passers, Larry Rakestraw, who is still prominent in the Bulldog record books. Griffith resigned his coaching duties in December, 1963, and later went on to establish a successful construction business in Atlanta. He became a tireless worker in behalf of the State of Georgia Sports Hall of Fame and was selected for induction into the Hall in 1997.

Vince Dooley (Auburn) 1964-1988

Dooley is the most successful coach in Georgia history. He guided the Bulldogs to over 200 victories in a quarter century at the helm of the Georgia program and is one of the best known and most highly regarded coaches in the country. He was hired in January 1964 by then Athletic Director Joel Eaves to bring life back to the Georgia program and succeeded beyond all expectations. His teams became known for their outstanding toughness, sound fundamentals, and finding a way to win en route to a career record of 201-77-10. He became only the ninth coach in NCAA Division I history to win over 200 games. The Bulldogs won one national championship (1980) and six SEC Championships under his direction. He took his teams to 20 Bowl games and coached a Heisman Trophy winner (Herschel Walker, 1982), a Maxwell Award Winner (Walker, 1982), an Outland Award Winner (Bill Stanfill, 1968), 40 First Team All-Americans and 10 Academic All-Americans. He was named NCAA National Coach of the Year by every major poll in 1980 and by Chevrolet-WTBS in 1982. A former president of the American Football Coaches Association, Dooley was named SEC Coach of the Year seven times and NCAA District Coach of the Year on six occasions. During his tenure, seven of his players earned the prestigious National Football Foundation post-graduate scholarship and 11 former players received the equally-coveted NCAA post-graduate scholarship. Seventy-seven of his players earned Academic All-SEC recognition. He holds the unique distinction of being inducted into the Sports Hall of Fame in two different states, Georgia and Alabama. Dooley is a 1994 inductee into the National College Football Hall of Fame.

Ray Goff (UGA), 1989-1995

Goff succeeded Vince Dooley in 1988. He was a former player and All-SEC quarterback under Dooley from 1973-1976, and Capt. of the Southeastern Conference Champions in 1976 when he was named SEC Player of the Year. After serving three years as an assistant coach at South Carolina, he became one of Dooley's assistants at Georgia from 1981-1988. In seven seasons, Goff coached the Bulldogs to a 46-34-1 record, four bowls (with victories over Arkansas in the 1991 Independence Bowl and Ohio State in the 1993 Citrus Bowl), and an eighth place national ranking after the 10-2 campaign in 1992.

Jim Donnan (NC State) 1996-2000

In Jim Donnan's five years as head coach, UGA compiled a 40-19 overall record, including 25-15 in SEC play (5-6 in '96, 10-2 in '97, 9-3 in '98, 8-4 in '99, and 8-4 in 2000). And for the first time in school history, the Bulldogs won bowl games in four consecutive seasons.

Under his direction, Georgia also finished in the nation's top 20 a school-record four consecutive seasons—10th in '97; 14th in '98, 16th in '99, and 17th in 2000. In addition, Georgia set two home game attendance marks averaging 85,618 per game in 1998 and in 1999 and 2000 sold out every home game for an average of 86,117 in 1999 — fifth best in the country—and 86,520 in 2000.

A native of Burlington, N.C., Donnan came to Georgia after a record-setting run at Marshall. In six years, his teams won 64 games, one national title (1992), three national runner-up finishes (1991, '93, '95), and five straight trips to the post-season playoffs. He was named national 1-AA Coach of the Year twice (1992, '95) and was inducted into College Football Hall of Fame in 2009.

Mark Richt (Miami, Fla.) 2001-15

Mark Richt built quite a legacy in 15 seasons as UGA's head coach. By winning percentage, he ranks first among all Georgia coaches at .740 over 15 seasons, and he ranks second only to Vince Dooley in victories with 145.

Richt led Georgia to two SEC Championships (2002, '05), five SEC Eastern Division titles and tied for another. He was named SEC Coach of the Year in both 2002 and 2005. He was also one of only seven coaches in history to win two SEC championships (2002, 2005) in his first five years, and one of just seven head coaches in SEC history to record four straight 10-win seasons (2002-05). His record against non-conference teams was 60-11 and his teams were an impressive 49-16 when playing in an opponent's home stadium.

Just as important as Richt's win-loss record was his stewardship of the program away from the playing field. More than 300 players under his guidance earned academic degrees. The Bulldogs drew praise nationally for their work in the Athens area community. Perhaps most important, however, was his founding of the Paul Oliver Network, a program that supports lettermen in their transition to life after football.

Bryan McClendon (UGA) 2015 ('16 TaxSlayer Bowl)

Four-year UGA letterman Bryan McClendon was named Interim Head Coach of the Bulldogs on Dec. 3, 2015, and he served in that capacity through Georgia's victory over Penn State in the 2016 TaxSlayer Bowl.

McClendon had been a member of the Georgia coaching staff since 2007. Prior to his appointment as Interim Head Coach, he had been the Bulldogs' Assistant Head Coach, Passing Game Coordinator and Wide Receivers Coach in 2015.

Vincent J. Dooley The University of Georgia Director of Athletics, 1979-2004

There may have been no more decorated director of athletics in the country than Georgia's Vince Dooley who served as head football coach at UGA from December, 1963, to Jan. 1, 1988, and as Director of Athletics from 1979-2004. He was a man of great foresight in times of charting the future, stability in times of change, and vision in critical times that shaped the path of college athletics.

His national stature was evident by his numerous honors: 2010 Bear Bryant Lifetime Achievement Award; 2004 James J. Corbett Memorial Award presented annually by the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA), the highest honor one can achieve in collegiate athletics administration; the 2004 John L. Toner Award presented annually by the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame for superior administrative abilities and outstanding dedication to college athletics; 2005 Francis J. "Reds" Bagnell Award Contributions to the Game of Football by the Maxwell Club; and the 2004 Contributions to College Football Award presented by National College Football Awards Association and ESPN. He was also selected to the Georgia Trend Magazine Hall of Fame in 2004 and was named by the magazine one of the Top 100 Georgians of the Century in 2000.

Under his watch as athletic director, Georgia teams won 20 national championships (ten in his final six years) including an unprecedented four during the 1998-99 year (women's swimming, gymnastics, men's tennis, men's golf). During Dooley's tenure, Georgia athletic teams won 78 SEC team championships and numerous individual national titles in both men's and women's sports. In the annual Directors' Cup national all-sports competition, Georgia teams earned top-10 finishes in five of his final seven years as Director of Athletics.

He was also a standard-bearer for academic excellence. Under his leadership, more than 100 Georgia student-athletes were named first team Academic All-America, more than 50 received NCAA Post-Graduate Scholarships, seven were named recipients of the SEC's Boyd McWhorter Scholar-Athlete of the Year award, seven NCAA Top Eight Award winners, three NCAA Woman of the Year recipients, two Walter Byers Award winners, and well over $275,000 was awarded to the University's general scholarship fund through performances by Georgia student-athletes.

In May of 2019, the Georgia Board of Regents approved the naming of the playing field at Sanford Stadium in Dooley's honor. Officially, the facility's name is now Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium.

FRANK SINKWICH

1942 Heisman Trophy Winner
Jersey Retired in 1943
1940, '41, '42 (Capt.)

In 1942, Frank Sinkwich became Georgia's first Heisman Trophy winner after leading Georgia to an 11-1 record, SEC championship, and victory over UCLA in the Rose Bowl.

It was the culmination of a great college career highlighted by the Heisman Trophy and All-America selection two consecutive years. In his three-year career (1940-42), Sinkwich rushed for 2,271 yards, passed for 2,331, and accounted for 60 touchdowns—30 rushing and 30 passing.

Born in McKees Rock, Pa., Sinkwich was an outstanding high school star at Cheney High School in Youngstown, Ohio. In his record setting senior season with the Bulldogs, Sinkwich gained 795 yards rushing and set the SEC passing record with 1,392 yards, a mark that stood for eight years. He set the SEC total offense record of 2,187 yards that same season. Sinkwich led Georgia to another SEC record — 4,725 yards of team total offense. Although playing with two sprained ankles, he scored Georgia's only TD in 9-0 victory over UCLA in the Rose Bowl.

In 1941, Sinkwich set an SEC rushing record with 1,103 yards which stood for eight years, and gained 713 yards passing for a new SEC total offense record of 1,816 yards. He led Georgia to a 40-26 victory over TCU in the Orange Bowl New Year's Day in 1942 with a performance still considered by many as the best in all bowl history. Sinkwich gained 139 yards, completed 9 of 13 passes for 243 yards and three touchdowns — a total offensive effort of 382 yards. That season, Sinkwich played from the third game on with a broken jaw in a protective mask.

Sinkwich was All-Pro with Detroit in 1943-44, but a knee injury received in the Air Force game in 1945 ended his playing career. He was inducted into the National Football Hall of Fame in 1954.

RETIRED JERSEYS

On Sept. 2, 1985, the jersey #34 of 1982 Heisman Trophy winner Herschel Walker (L) was retired during halftime ceremonies of the season-opening Georgia-Alabama game. In a rare gathering of former UGA superstars, Walker was joined by the other three former Bulldogs who have retired jerseys: #40 Theron Sapp, #62 Charley Trippi, and #21 Frank Sinkwich.

#62

CHARLEY TRIPPI

1946 Maxwell Award Winner
Jersey Retired in 1947
1942, '45, '46

Charley Trippi is still regarded by many as the greatest all-around athlete ever to play for the University of Georgia.

Trippi began earning Hall of Fame distinction as a sophomore by leading the Bulldogs to a 9-0 victory over U.C.L.A. in the 1943 Rose Bowl game in which he was named the game's outstanding player after rushing for 130 yards.

Born Dec. 14, 1922, in Pittston, Pa., Trippi was a unanimous All-America selection in 1946 after leading Georgia to a perfect 11-0 record, SEC championship, and victory over North Carolina in the Sugar Bowl game. His senior season, he led the SEC in scoring with 84 points and finished the year with 1,366 yards total offense (744 rushing and 622 passing). He was runnerup for the Heisman Trophy in '46 and won the Maxwell Award, given annually to the most valuable player in the country.

He signed with the Chicago Cardinals following his collegiate career and in his rookie season, led them to the world championship. In the championship game, he scored twice on a 44-yard rush and 75-yard punt return. He played with the Cardinals for nine seasons.

Following his playing career, Trippi was selected to the National College Football Hall of Fame, National Pro Football Hall of Fame, Rose Bowl Hall of Fame, and State of Georgia Sports Hall of Fame. He is one of only four Georgia players to have his jersey retired.

Trippi became a regular halfback on the 1942 SEC championship team that finished 11-1 and earned the Rose Bowl invitation. He gained 1,239 total yards (672 rushing on 98 carries and another 567 passing completing 30 of 58).

He spent 1943-45 serving in the Air Force, but following his discharge, he returned to Georgia to play the final six games of the 1945 season. One of his most memorable performances was leading the 'Dogs to a 33-0 victory over Georgia Tech—a game in which he set the SEC record for yards gained passing (323) and also total offense (384 yards on 323 passing and 61 rushing). Against Florida that same year, he set the SEC record for rushing in a single game with 239 yards. In his junior season, he led Georgia to a 20-6 victory over Tulsa in the Oil Bowl at Houston, Jan. 1, 1946.

Trippi was also an All-America baseball player in 1946 and played with the Atlanta Crackers in 1947. He later served as an assistant coach at Georgia (1958-62) and with the St. Louis Cardinals.

#40 THERON SAPP, FB

Jersey Retired in 1959
1956, '57, '58 (Capt.)

He will always be known as "The Drought Breaker" for his great touchdown against Georgia Tech in 1957. His score was the difference in a 7-0 Georgia victory which ended an eight-year losing streak to the Yellow Jackets. But that single score sometimes overshadows a great career at Georgia which included being named All-SEC in 1958 and his election as Capt..

He was drafted by Philadelphia in 1960, and was in the lineup when the Eagles defeated Vince Lombardi's up-and-coming Green Bay Packers in the NFL championship game. He was traded to Pittsburgh in 1963 and responded by rushing for over 500 yards and helping the Steelers to the Eastern Division title.

Georgia set an NFL Draft record when five of its defensive players were taken in the first round in 2022, led by Travon Walker, who was drafted first overall by Jacksonville.

George Young, DE.....	Cleveland Browns, 1950

Over the 130-year history of football at Georgia, seven Bulldog teams have actually been declared national champions at season's end in at least one of the national polls recognized by the National College Football Hall of Fame and included in the official NCAA Football Record Book.

Two of those — 1980 and 1942 — were consensus selections, having been chosen in at least half of the recognized polls. The two most recent champions, in 2021 and 2022, won their titles on the field and were voted No. 1 unanimously in the aftermath. Three other Georgia teams - 1927, 1946, and 1968 - were recognized by polls such as the Williamson, based on a power ratings system, and the Litkenhous, a difference-by-score formula.

THE CONSENSUS NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

2022 - With a dominant 15-0 season, Georgia became the first team in the College Football Playoff era to win back-to-back championships.

After opening the season with a 49-3 victory over No. 11 Oregon, Georgia again used a forceful defense and a high-powered offense to post an undefeated season and earn its first SEC title since 2017. Quarterback Stetson Bennett became the Bulldogs' first Heisman Trophy finalist in thirty years, finishing fourth in voting while also winning the Manning Award. Tight end Brock Bowers won the program's first John Mackey Award, while defensive back Christopher Smith was a finalist for the Bronko Nagurski Trophy. Bowers, Smith, defensive lineman Jalen Carter and linebacker Jamon Dumas-Johnson each earned First Team All-America honors.

Holding the top ranking for much of the season, the Bulldogs grabbed control of the SEC race with a 27-13 victory over CFP No. 1 Tennessee in one of the most anticipated games in program history. Following a 50-30 win over LSU in the SEC Championship Game, Georgia used a fourth-quarter comeback to top Ohio State in the Peach Bowl before an unprecedented 65-7 title game rout of TCU.

2021 - There was no debating Georgia's claim to the 2021 national title, its first in 41 years and first in the college football playoff era.

Indeed, the Bulldogs posted a perfect regular season in which they were rarely threatened, winning their first 12 games by an average score of 49-8. This dominance was highlighted by a defense that featured winners of the Outland Trophy (Jordan Davis), Chuck Bednarik Award (Davis) and Butkus Award (Nakobe Dean), as well as the first overall pick in the NFL Draft (Travon Walker). Fittingly, the first and last touchdowns of this historic season were scored by the Georgia defense.

The Bulldogs ascended to the No. 1 spot in the polls by mid-October. A loss to Alabama in the SEC Championship Game proved to be their lone misstep. After steamrolling Michigan in the CFP semifinal at the Orange Bowl, Georgia avenged the Alabama game by defeating the Crimson Tide 33-18 for the national championship, scoring 20 fourth-quarter points to put an unforgettable stamp upon its season.

1980 - Vince Dooley's 1980 team steadily climbed the polls amid a perfect 12-0 season, culminating with its 17-10 victory over Notre Dame in the Sugar Bowl that decided the national title.

The Bulldogs, scarcely ranked in pre-season polls, had entered the Top 10 by October. In the season's eighth game, Georgia defeated South Carolina 13-10 and moved to the No. 2 spot in the polls. The next week in Jacksonville, it needed the now legendary Belue-to-Scott touchdown pass in the final minute to defeat Florida and keep its storied season on track. Two days later the Dogs vaulted over Notre Dame -- which had tied Georgia Tech in its most recent game -- into the No. 1 spot.

The two teams met in the Sugar Bowl on Jan. 1. Led by freshman sensation Herschel Walker's two touchdowns, Georgia defeated the Irish, 17-10, to lay claim to its undisputed national crown.

1942 - In 1942, James Wallace Butts of Milledgeville, Ga., molded what was regarded as the Bulldogs' most powerful team in the first 50 years of Georgia football. Georgia was led by All-Americans Frank Sinkwich, who would win the Heisman Trophy following the season, and end George Poschner, along with a young back named Charley Trippi, who would years later be called perhaps the greatest all-around athlete ever to play for the Bulldogs.

Georgia knocked off nine consecutive opponents and ranked No. 1 in the nation. But Auburn ambushed the 'Dogs in Columbus, 27-13. Georgia, however, came back to win a Rose Bowl bid by blanking previously unbeaten Georgia Tech in Athens, 34-0, in the regular season finale. Georgia then edged UCLA, 9-0, in the Rose Bowl to finish the season 11-1. In the final polls, Georgia was declared national champion in six polls recognized by the NCAA—DeVold, Houlgate, Litkenhous, Williamson, Poling, and Berryman.

The other three....

1927 - Georgia's famous "dream and wonder team" of Coach George "Kid" Woodruff won its first nine games, including the Bulldogs' first win ever over Yale, a college football power of the 1920's, in New Haven, Conn. It ranked No. 1 in the nation with one regular-season game left. However, Georgia Tech spoiled the perfect season by upsetting the 'Dogs in the rain, 12-0, in Atlanta. But the Bulldogs were still voted number one in two final recognized polls — Boand and Poling.

1946 - The 1942 juggernaut was dismantled by the events of World War II. But Charley Trippi and several of his Rose Bowl teammates returned to school in 1946 and led Georgia to a perfect 10-0 regular season and 20-10 victory over North Carolina in the Sugar Bowl. Despite Georgia's perfect record, Notre Dame was declared national champion by the majority of the polls; however, the Bulldogs were voted No. 1 in the final Williamson poll.

1968 - In 1968, another of Vince Dooley's teams went through the regular season undefeated, but tied twice, finishing 8-0-2 and earning an invitation to the Sugar Bowl. Despite suffering a 16-2 loss in the bowl game to Arkansas, Georgia was still voted No. 1 in the Litkenhous poll.

Some that came close....

Several other Georgia teams have flirted with national titles. After the 1980 season, Georgia had a magnificent run that produced three straight teams that had a shot at the winning national title—1981, '82, and '83. Two Mark Richt-coached teams (2002, 2007) also came close. Most recently, the second squad of the Kirby Smart era came agonizingly close to winning it all.

1981 - Despite an early season loss to Clemson, 13-3, in which the 'Dogs had nine turnovers, Georgia fought its way back to a No. 2 national ranking by winning the final eight regular season games. But a loss to Pitt in the Sugar Bowl in the final 20 seconds extinguished any chance at a second consecutive national title.

1982 - Led by Heisman Trophy winner Herschel Walker, Georgia marched through the 11-game regular season undefeated and untied and was ranked No. 1 heading into the bowl games. But second-ranked Penn State upended the Bulldogs, 27-23, in the Sugar Bowl to claim the national crown.

1983 - One of Georgia's favorite teams, the defensive-minded Bulldogs headed into the bowl games with a 9-1-1 record but faced undefeated, untied, and second-ranked Texas in the Cotton Bowl classic at Dallas. Despite being heavy underdogs, Georgia's defense stymied the Longhorns and the opportunistic offense scored a touchdown with 3:22 to play to give the 'Dogs a 10-9 upset. The nation's top-ranked team also lost that day, but the final polls ranked Georgia fourth.

2002 - Head coach Mark Richt's second team won more games (13) than any team in UGA history to that point and won Georgia's first SEC championship in 20 years. Only a 7-point loss to Florida in Jacksonville kept the Dogs out of a shot at the national championship game. The 13-1 Bulldogs, after defeating FSU in the Nokia Sugar Bowl, still finished the season ranked No. 3 in all major polls.

2007 - Although not selected for the national championship game, the 'Dawgs finished 11-2 with a No. 2 final national ranking.

2017 - The SEC champion Bulldogs advanced to the College Football Playoff, where they played a pair of overtime thrillers. As the No. 3 seed, Georgia defeated second-seeded Oklahoma 54-48 in double overtime in the 2018 Rose Bowl Game. One week later in the championship game, the Bulldogs led Alabama 13-0 at halftime and 20-7 in the third quarter but were defeated 26-23 in overtime.

And some others that had a shot....

1976 - The SEC champion 'Dogs finished 10-1 in the regular season and went into the bowl games ranked fourth but had a shot by playing No. 1 Pitt in the Sugar Bowl. But the Panthers, led by Heisman Trophy winner Tony Dorsett, defeated Georgia, 27-3, to claim the national crown.

1971 - Sophomore quarterback Andy Johnson led Georgia to nine straight victories before undefeated Auburn ended the 'Dogs hopes of a national title with a 35-20 victory in Athens. Despite the loss, Georgia still finished 11-1 by beating Georgia Tech in the final regular season game and defeating North Carolina in the Gator Bowl.

1966 - Georgia soundly defeated SMU in the Cotton Bowl but could not overcome a single regular season defeat to Miami by a single point as the 'Dogs finished the season 10-1 and ranked No. 4.

The Arch

Serving as the official symbol of the University of Georgia, the Arch was built in the 1850s and originally served as part of a larger iron fence securing the campus. Daniel Redfearn (BL 1909, BS 1910) is credited with making the Arch the sacred symbol of UGA. Recognized as one of the school's finest icons, students today hold the Arch in high regard as its three pillars represent the virtues of wisdom, justice, and moderation.

The Arch

The "G"

In 1963 after becoming the Bulldogs' Head Football Coach, Vince Dooley redesigned the football uniform, choosing a red helmet with a black "G" on a white background as the dominant feature of the new uniform for the 1964 season.

He discussed with his staff that a forward-looking "G" would be an appropriate emblem for the helmet of the Georgia team. Dooley had just hired John Donaldson, former Georgia player from 1945 to 1948, as backfield coach. Donaldson was keen on the idea of a new image and volunteered his wife, Anne, who had a BFA in commercial art from UGA, to design a logo for the new Georgia helmet with the general specifications Dooley had outlined. Dooley accepted Anne's original "G" which fit his vision for a forward look to Georgia's new emblem.

Since the Georgia "G", though different in design and color, was similar to Green Bay's "G", Coach Dooley thought it best to clear the use of Georgia's new emblem with the NFL team. Athletic Director Joel Eaves called for permission, which was granted. However, since its inception in 1961, the Green Bay "G" has been redesigned several times and now looks like Georgia's original 1964 "G." Georgia is proud that the Packers apparently liked the special nuances of the Bulldogs' forward-looking "G".

Georgia's oval "G", eventually replacing Georgia's old block "G" as the official UGA symbol, has stood the test of time. It made its first appearance in the opening game in 1964 and was an immediate hit with the Georgia fans, especially after Dooley's first three teams were so successful—highlighted by the 1966 SEC Championship.

Chapel Bell

"Bulldogs"

"Between the Hedges"

"Lone Trumpeter"

"Silver Britches"

"Silver Britches"

Silver Britches were an innovation of Coach Wally Butts, who took over as head coach in 1939. The handsome pants complemented the bright red jersey and made for a striking uniform. Through the years, fans referred to the Bulldogs' silver britches in their chants and on banners, but the phrase really caught on in the early fifties with a cheer, banners, and colorful vests that proclaimed "Go, You Silver Britches." Coach Vince Dooley re-designed the uniform when he came in 1964 and used white pants; however, he re-instituted the silver britches in 1980 just prior to what turned out to be Georgia's national championship season.

The Chapel Bell

The ringing of the chapel bell after a Georgia victory is a tradition that continues even though freshmen are no longer ordered to do the chore. In the 1890's, the playing field was located only yards from the Chapel and first-year students were compelled to ring the bell until midnight in celebration of a Bulldog victory. Today students, alumni, and townspeople still rush to the Chapel to ring the bell after a gridiron victory.

"Glory, Glory"

Among the University's oldest and most lasting traditions is the school fight song, "Glory, Glory," which is sung to the tune of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic." It was sung at games as early as the 1890's, but arranged in its present form by Georgia's immortal musician-composer Hugh Hodgson in 1915. There have been many Bulldog songs through the years and at least two collections dating back to 1909 have been published, but none have enjoyed more acceptance than "Glory, Glory."

"How 'Bout Them Dogs"

This is a slogan of recent vintage, but one that has become a battle cry of Bulldog fans probably because of its obvious grammatical slur. It first surfaced during the mid to late 1970's especially during the 1978 season when the Bulldogs posted several remarkable, come-from-behind victories. It gained national attention and exposure when Georgia won the national championship in 1980. A major wire service used the phrase in its story of Georgia's victory over Notre Dame and many newspapers picked it up in glaring headlines across the country proclaiming "How 'Bout Them Dogs!"

"Bulldogs"

Many oldtimers say Georgia acquired the nickname, "Bulldogs," because of the strong ties with Yale, whose nickname is "Bulldogs." Georgia's first president, Abraham Baldwin, was a Yale man and the early buildings on campus were designed from blueprints of the same buildings at Yale. However, the first references to the nickname "Bulldogs" actually came in the 1910's (1911-20) by Atlanta newspaper writers covering both football and baseball games. Although used occasionally during the previous decade, the nickname began to be consistently used around 1920.

On Nov. 3, 1920, Morgan Blake of the Atlanta Journal wrote about school nicknames and said "The Georgia Bulldogs would sound good because there is a certain dignity about a bulldog, as well as ferocity." After a 0-0 tie with Virginia in Charlottesville on Nov. 6, 1920, Atlanta Constitution writer Cliff Wheatley used the name "Bulldogs" in his story five times. Gene Hinton also used the term "Bulldogs." The nickname seemed to be off and running.

"Between The Hedges"

A reference to Sanford Stadium that dates to the early 1930's. The famous Chinese privet hedges that surround Sanford's playing field were only one foot high when the stadium was dedicated in 1929 and were protected by a wooden fence. It was natural for a clever sports writer, referring to an upcoming home game, to observe "that the Bulldogs will have their opponent 'between the hedges.'" At least one old-timer says the phrase was first coined by the legendary Atlanta sportswriter Grantland Rice.

"Lone Trumpeter"

Seven minutes before kickoff in Sanford Stadium, the Bulldog Nation directs its attention to a lone trumpeter standing in the upper deck of the southwest corner of the stadium. The soloist is recognized and begins to play the first 14 notes of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic." The Battle Hymn solo was originally composed in 1987 as a student project by Jeff Simmons and became a part of the pre-game traditions in 2000. Each year, 25-30 members of the Redcoat Band audition for one of the 4-5 soloist positions.

Although the University of Georgia is now known as the home of Uga, the pure white English bulldog, several mascots led the Red and Black before Frank W. Seiler provided the current lineage beginning in 1956.

The Goat -- Feb. 22, 1892

Georgia's mascot for its first football game against Auburn, February 22, 1892 in Atlanta, Ga., was a goat. Old newspaper clippings indicate that the goat wore a black coat with red U.G. letters on each side. He also had on a hat with ribbons all down his high horns, and the Auburn fans yelled throughout the game "shoot the billy-goat."

Trilby, 1894

In 1894, Georgia's mascot was a solid white female bull terrier owned by a student, Charles H. Black, Sr., of Atlanta. Trilby, named after a novel by George Du Maurier, served as the campus pet and mascot for the Chi Phi fraternity.

Disputing stories speculate the origin of the Bulldog nickname, and the story of Trilby provides yet another opinion: "...every day Trilby took herself down to old Herty field with her master for football practice. She ran signals with the best of them and became an accustomed figure on the athletic field...One morning, Trilby failed to appear for her breakfast and after a frantic search she was finally discovered proudly washing the faces of her newborn family, 13 white puppies...Late one dusky fall afternoon, Trilby appeared for a grid workout and scampering after her came her 13 children, darting through players' legs, barking and pace. 'Well,' suggested one of the players, 'Trilby has brought us a name, Bulldogs.' ...Every time a game was played on Herty Field, the boys would floss Trilby and her 13 offerings up with red and black ribbons, and so attired they have gone down in history as perhaps the first 'sponsors' in southern football." —Ruth Stanton Cogill (Atlanta newspaper)

"After the rein of Trilby and her family, chaos developed in the mascot department at the university. Many games had several, depending on which alumnus got his dog to the game first." —AJC, Nov. 18, 1962

Mr. Angel, 1944-46

Mr. Angel, a brindle and white colored English Bulldog owned by Eastman, Ga.,-physician, Warren Coleman, filled a void during some of the war years.

There was no mascot roaming the sidelines and Coleman took Mr. Angel to games and stood with him on the sidelines. His picture on the field and with the Georgia cheerleaders appears in the 1945 and '46 UGA annual, the Pandora.

Butch, 1947-50

Butch was a brindled English bulldog owned by Mabry Smith of Warner Robins,

Trilby with owner Charles H. Black

Sanford Stadium Graves

Ga. He was spotted by students who were attending the 1946 Georgia-Georgia Tech game in Athens, and the canine appeared to be suited for the mascot position. Smith agreed to loan Butch to the University during the football season along with a female puppy named Tuffy. The female died of a heart attack following the Georgia-Kentucky game in 1948, but Butch continued to serve. Spending the off-season at Smith's home in Warner Robins, Butch was tragically shot in the summer of 1951 by a policeman after the dog escaped from his pen and was found roaming the streets. Butch is buried behind Smith's business along Watson Boulevard.

In 2004 plans for a marker honoring Butch in his hometown were put into motion by longtime Warner Robins resident Guy Fussell.

Mike, 1951-55

Butch was succeeded by Mike, another brindled English bulldog, owned by C. L. Fain. Mike lived in the field house on campus and died of natural canine causes in 1955. As his master's thesis, Gene Owens of Fort Worth, Texas, cast the bronze statue of Mike which is located at the entrance of Memorial Hall

Uga Takes the Field

In the last 100 years of intercollegiate football, Georgia's Uga has established himself as the nation's most well-known mascot. The line of pure white English bulldogs, which epitomizes everything Georgia, has been owned by the Frank W. "Sonny" Seiler family of Savannah, Ga., since Uga I first graced the campus in 1956.

Through the years, Uga has been defined by his spiked collar, a symbol of the position which he holds. He was given his name, an abbreviation for the university, by William Young of Columbus, a law school classmate of Seiler. Each of the Uga mascots is awarded a varsity letter in the form of a plaque, identical to those presented to all Bulldog athletes who letter in their respective sports.

As determined and published by the Pitt Press, the University of Georgia is the only major college that actually buries its mascots within the confines of the stadium. Ugas I-IX are buried in marble vaults near the main gate in the embankment of the South stands. Epitaphs to the dogs are inscribed in bronze, and before each home game, flowers are placed on their graves. The memorial plot attracts hundreds of fans and visitors each year.

For the past 20 years, Uga's jerseys have been custom-made at the beginning of each season from the same material used for the players' jerseys. Old jerseys are destroyed.

Uga's on-field home is a permanent air conditioned doghouse located next to the cheerleader's platform, providing comfort in the heat of August and September. The custom-made doghouse is a gift from the Bahamian Bulldog Club of Nassau, Bahamas, through the courtesy of Fred Hazlewood.

Uga I, 1956-66
"Hood's Ole Dan"
Record: 53-48-6

The current Uga line of solid white English bulldogs began with Uga I, Hood's Ole Dan, born Dec. 2, 1955, in Columbus. Uga I was given to Cecelia Seiler by a friend, Frank Heard of Columbus and appeared in his first game in the 1956 home opener. As recalled by Sonny Seiler, "...his original red jerseys were made by Cecelia. It was necessary to take up children's t-shirts to fit the dog in the right places. There is no telling how many of these jersey's he wore out. During the early games in Athens, especially the hot ones before he had a dog house, the large green hedges that surround Sanford Stadium afford welcomed shade in the heat of battle. Unfortunately, the hedges constantly tore these jerseys and new ones had to be made."

Born Oct. 9, 1972, Seiler's Uga III was present for Georgia football's finest moment as Herschel Walker took the Bulldogs to the 1980 national championship. He led Georgia to six bowl games in nine years and closed out his career in ultimate fashion winning the 1980 NCAA championship. Uga III retired on the 100th football game of his career, marking the opener of the 1981 season. He died just weeks later.

With the Georgia Redcoat Band lining the field, Uga II was led to the center of the field by Charles Seiler, son of Sonny and Cecelia. The student body erupted in a cheer that was picked up by the entire stadium, "Damn Good Dog!"

Uga II had an impressive reign as he watched Georgia participate in five bowl games and win two SEC championships.

Uga IV

Uga IV, 1981-89
"Seiler's Uga Four"
Record: 77-27-4

Uga IV was perhaps the most active of all the Georgia mascots, standing as the only one to attend a bowl game every year of his service (1981-89). He took over for Uga III in the 1981 season opener and over the next nine seasons, led Georgia to a record of 77-27-4. The highlight of his career was his personal appearance at the Heisman Trophy Banquet with Herschel Walker in New York on December 9, 1982. Uga IV was escorted through the banquet hall by the president of the Downtown Athletic Club, and was earlier photographed with Herschel by photographers from across the country. The proud Bulldog donned his game jersey for the outing and added the formal touch of a collar and black tie. Uga IV was the first mascot invited to the Heisman Banquet. Declared "Dog of the Decade" by Vince Dooley in 1991, Uga IV was posthumously awarded the highest honor available to University of Georgia mascots — the Georgia varsity letter.

Otto, 1986
"The Substitute"
Record: 3-1

Although Otto was not pure white like his father, he was called upon to fill in for his younger brother, Uga IV, who injured ligaments in his left hind knee when jumping off a hotel bed before the Vanderbilt contest. In four games during the 1986 season, Otto led the team to a 3-1 record and also co-mascotted (along with Uga IV), a victory over instate rival Georgia Tech. After winning his first two games, fans cheered, "2-and-0 with Otto!" Dooley, serving as head coach during Otto's brief tenure, favored the substitute the most. "I have always had a great affection for those who came off the bench and performed, and he did that and had a great time," Dooley said. Otto is buried in the Seiler's backyard.

Uga V, 1990-99 "UGA IV's Magillicuddy II" Record: 65-39-1

In the first game of 1990, Uga V officially began his reign as the Georgia mascot, taking over from his father Uga IV, who passed away at his home in Savannah on Feb. 26, 1990. Uga V was the last pup sired by Uga IV and was born on March 6, 1990.

Named in honor of one of the greatest Bulldogs, Dan Magill, former Assistant Athletic Director for Public Relations and longtime tennis coach and sports information director. Surprisingly, the Seiler family became aware that Uga IV's mate was expecting only 10 days before the litter was due. This notice came a week after Uga IV had passed away at his home in Savannah from kidney failure. There were only three pups in the litter and the last one born on March 6 was the only solid white male.

Uga V had been perhaps the most well known of all the Bulldog mascots, highlighted by his appearance on the cover of the April 28, 1997, Sports Illustrated which declared him the nation's best college mascot. Rocketed to stardom, he also appeared in Clint Eastwood's "Midnight In The Garden Of Good And Evil" — filmed in his hometown of Savannah, Ga. He died on Nov. 22, 1999, just over two months after his retirement.

Uga VI

Uga VI, 1999-2008 "Uga V's Whatchagot Loran" Record: 87-27

In 2007, Uga VI became the winningest mascot in school history and owned a record of 87-27. The fall of 2008 would have been his 10th season after Uga VI reigned over more games than any other mascot with 114. He died on June 27, 2008. In his last game, the Bulldogs defeated Hawai'i 41-10 in the 2008 Sugar Bowl in New Orleans.

The pregame passing of the bone ceremony from Uga V to his heftier and friskier son, Whatchagot Loran, took place at the 1999 Georgia-South Carolina contest. Only a year old at his coronation, Uga VI stood as the biggest of all the Uga mascots weighing in at 65 pounds — 20 pounds heavier than his father.

His first season climaxed in a magnificent come from behind victory over Purdue at the Outback Bowl in Tampa. The 2000 season ended in Hawaii, but due to the distance and a quarantine rule, Uga VI missed the O'ahu Bowl, marking the first time the Georgia mascot had missed the postseason game since the 1969 Sun Bowl.

Alongside first-year head coach Mark Richt, Uga VI saw his third consecutive 8-4 season, which included a 26-24 win at then-No. 6 Tennessee for the Bulldogs' first win in Knoxville since 1980.

Uga VI and Georgia experienced their best run in two decades during the 2002-05 seasons. That stretch included 44 wins, a pair of SEC titles and appearances in the Sugar, Capital One and Outback Bowls.

In 2007, Uga VI passed Uga IV (77-24-4) for the most wins of any bulldog in school history.

Uga VII, 2008-2009 "Loran's Best" Record: 16-7

The seventh in the Uga line of Georgia mascots was introduced to the Georgia people on Aug. 30, 2008, during pre-game ceremonies of the Bulldogs' season opener against Georgia Southern.

"Loran's Best" officially became "Uga VII," when he was introduced for the first time to the Sanford Stadium crowd prior to kickoff of the Georgia vs. Georgia Southern game. He was escorted onto the field by members of the Frank W. "Sonny" Seiler family of Savannah who have owned the continuous line of mascots since Uga I took up the mantle in 1956.

Uga VII passed away unexpectedly on Nov. 19 of heart-related causes. It was the Thursday before the final home game of the 2009 season and the Bulldogs did not have a live mascot at the game. Instead, a wreath was placed on UGA VII's doghouse, and the players wore a special UGA VII decal on their helmets to remember him. "Russ," the five-year-old half brother of Uga VII, served as the Bulldog mascot for the Georgia Tech game in Atlanta and helped his squad to a 30-24 win. He was the first substitute mascot since "Otto" in 1986.

Epitaph: Gone Too Soon

Uga VIII, 2010 "Big Bad Bruce" Record: 4-2

Born Sept. 12, 2009 in Savannah, Ga., Uga VIII is the grandson of Uga VI. He carried on the tradition of more than 60 years of all-white bulldogs bred by Frank "Sonny" Seiler and family.

Uga VIII was named in honor of Dr. Bruce Hollett from the University's School of Veterinary Medicine. Dr. Hollett has been a longtime caregiver for the famed line of English bulldogs. UGA VIII served six games in the 2010 season before he became ill and missed the AutoZone Liberty Bowl. He passed away with lymphoma on February 4, 2011.

Epitaph: He Never Had a Chance

Uga VIII

Uga IX, 2012-14 ("Russ", 2009-2012: 16-9) Record: 44-19

"Uga IX, formerly "Russ," the half-brother of Uga VII, served as interim Bulldog mascot for a total of 25 games. He worked nine games during the 2009 and 2010 seasons after Uga VII and VIII passed away. He roamed the sidelines at all 14 games during the 2011 season. He then served for two wins at the beginning of the 2012 season before being promoted as Uga IX prior to the Florida Atlantic game on Sept. 15, 2012. His time as mascot included the 2011 and 2012 SEC Eastern Division championships, three road wins at Georgia Tech, a victory over Texas A&M in the 2009 Independence Bowl in Shreveport, La., and a win over Nebraska in the 2013 Capital One Bowl. He was the first substitute mascot since "Otto" in 1986.

Epitaph: He endeared himself to the Georgia people. His dedication to duty when called upon was exemplary.

Uga IX

Uga X, 2015-22 "Que" Record: 91-18

Uga IX officially retired as the Bulldogs' mascot at the end of the 2014 season. After a three-month "audition" in that role, his grandson "Que" was formally crowned as his successor in a collaring ceremony prior to the Georgia-Georgia Southern game on Nov. 21, 2015. Que assumed the title of Uga X at the age of 2 1/2 years. During his audition, he made appearances at the Countdown to Kickoff event in July 2015, as well as Picture Day in August, before presiding over the entirety of the 2015 football season. Que capped his inaugural season by leading the team to a 24-17 victory over Penn State at the 2016 TaxSlayer Bowl.

In the 2021 season, Que reached heights attained by just one of his ancestors, UGA III, when Georgia won the 2022 CFP National Championship Game. Que closed out his career with a second-consecutive national title, retiring after the 2022 season as the winningest mascot in program history.

Uga X

Uga XI

Uga XI, 2023-present "Boom" Record: 36-6

Following the retirement of Uga X, 10-month old puppy Boom assumed the vaunted role of Georgia's on-field mascot. During a pregame ceremony at the annual "G Day" game, University of Georgia president Jere W. Morehead joined J. Reid Parker Director of Athletics Josh Brooks and his son, Davis, in the ceremonial collaring of Boom. Boom is the 11th solid white English Bulldog to serve as Georgia's mascot since the line began in 1956.

In his first season, Boom saw the Bulldogs post their third-consecutive undefeated regular season, followed by a record-breaking 63-3 victory over Florida State in the Orange Bowl. Boom's second season saw the Bulldogs win the 2024 SEC Championship in overtime over Texas and reach the College Football Playoff as the No. 2 overall seed. In the third season, the Bulldogs repeated as SEC champions with a 12-2 record and were awarded the No. 3 seed in the CFP.

The Seiler family was joined by University of Georgia president Jere W. Morehead, J. Reid Parker Director of Athletics Josh Brooks, and his son, Davis, for the traditional collaring ceremony of Uga XI prior to the 2023 G-Day Spring Game.

Southeastern Conference

The Southeastern Conference, now entering its 94th storied year of athletic achievements and academic excellence, has built perhaps the greatest tradition of intercollegiate competition of any league in the country since its inception in 1933.

Since its formation, the SEC achieved both stature and stability by designating governing/voting power to the presidents of the member institutions. They have determined the policies of the conference and, through the years, this involvement has been the principal source of strength in the evolution of the SEC. Throughout its history, the SEC has provided leadership on the vital issues facing intercollegiate competition. In 1993, the member institutions adopted The Principles of Gender Equity. Committed to increasing the quantity and quality of women's athletic opportunities, each school will provide at least two more women's intercollegiate programs than the number of men's.

On July 1, 2024, the conference expanded again with the addition of Oklahoma and Texas. In 2012, the conference expanded to 14 teams, welcoming Missouri and Texas A&M. It was the first expansion in the SEC since 1992 when Arkansas and South Carolina came into the SEC. The six schools join charter members Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, LSU, Ole Miss, Mississippi State, Tennessee and Vanderbilt to form the current membership. The addition of Arkansas and South Carolina allowed for the SEC to split into divisional play and have the nation's first-ever Division I football conference championship game in 1992.

SEC schools began athletic competition with one another almost 100 years ago as members of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association. Seven institutions (Alabama, Auburn, Georgia, Georgia Tech, North Carolina, Sewanee and Vanderbilt) attended the SIAA organizational meeting of faculty representatives, called by Dr. William L. Dudley of Vanderbilt, in Atlanta on Dec. 22, 1894.

The first football game in the Southeast was played April 9, 1880, on the ground now called Old Stoll Field at the University of Kentucky. Kentucky A & M (now UK) organized a team and in November 1881, played Transylvania College in a three-game series. By 1895, 11 current SEC members were playing football.

The administration of women's athletics officially came under the auspices of the conference office on Sept. 1, 1984. The SEC currently regulates nine men's sports and 13 women's sports: Men - baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, swimming, tennis and track (indoor and outdoor); Women - basketball, cross country, equestrian, golf, gymnastics, rowing, soccer, softball, swimming, tennis, track (indoor and outdoor) and volleyball.

Since 1990, the SEC has won 229 national team championships for an average of more than six per year. In the last Learfield Director's Cup final rankings (2026), 13 SEC schools placed among the top 40 programs.

Redcoat Band

Coach Vince Dooley often referred to the Redcoat Band as the "Heart of the Bulldog Spirit." Indeed, the band's colorful presence, limitless enthusiasm, and compelling presentations are part of what makes Georgia Football special to so many.

The 440 students of the Redcoat Band are the most important factor in its success. Once they arrive on campus, the work has just begun. Redcoats arrive five to ten days before most students for evaluation, conditioning, and a whirlwind of training in Georgia traditions. During the fall semester, they commit six to eight hours of rehearsal per week, and a typical Game Day can last between 10 and 20 hours of non-stop activity that isn't as easy as they make it look.

As the season progresses, members refine and reinforce the fundamentals of their technique, while learning new material on a weekly basis for pregame, halftime, or their other contributions to game days. Throughout the year, Redcoats also perform at volleyball, soccer, basketball and gymnastics competitions, as well as other events that total about one hundred performances per academic year at athletic events alone. At a place with such a broad variety of academic fields--about 85 percent of Redcoats major in something other than Music--their time in the band is just one part of a rich collegiate experience.

Director Brett Bawcum, along with assistant directors Dr. W. Marcus Morris and Dr. Mia Athanas, lead the 120th edition of the band and its extensive part-time staff. Factor in the support of the Athletic Association, Student Activities, the Franklin College of Arts and Sciences, the Hugh Hodgson School of Music, the Redcoat Alumni Band, and a generous group of supporters, and it's clear that the Redcoat Band truly is a huge machine in Red and Black.

Keep your seats, everyone, the Redcoats are coming!

Josh Brooks

J. Reid Parker Director of Athletics

J. Reid Parker Director of Athletics Josh Brooks has led the University of Georgia Athletic Association through historic success since being named the program's 12th athletic director on Jan. 6, 2021.

Under his leadership, the Bulldogs have earned nine team national championships, 14 SEC crowns and 32 individual national titles, while setting new academic and fundraising marks along the way. Georgia has finished in the top 10 of the Learfield Directors' Cup All-Sports Standings in two of the last four years, including a No. 8 national ranking in 2026.

During the 2025-26 athletics season, the Bulldogs earned three national championships and set various records, including 12 wins and a Southeastern Conference title in football, new single-season win records for both men's basketball (22 regular season wins) and baseball (53 overall victories), a SEC regular season and tournament championship in baseball and national titles for women's tennis and women's track and field.

In 2025, Georgia tied a school record with four overall national championships. Student-athletes also set a new school-high mark with a 3.26 GPA during the 2024-25 academic campaign -- the highest single-year average in the history of the program. Additional highlights include football national championships in 2021 and 2022, a trio of national championships in women's tennis, the first-ever national title for women's track and field, a pair of equestrian national championships, and a school-record four-straight NCAA tournament appearances for soccer.

Georgia's No. 7 ranking in the 2023 Directors' Cup was the program's highest mark in 18 years, as Brooks become a finalist for the Sports Business Journal's Athletic Director of the Year honor.

These accomplishments highlight the University's position as an academic and athletic powerhouse and underscore the achievements of the Athletic Association during Brooks' six-year tenure as athletic director.

For all his success, Brooks has also become a leading voice in college athletics. He serves on the SEC Executive Committee, is vice chair of the NCAA Football Oversight Committee and is chair of the NCAA Football Practice and Playing Seasons Committee.

With a focus on maintaining the University's mission of excellence in teaching and learning, Bulldog student-athletes have excelled academically. Recently, UGA swimmers Abby McCulloh (2025) and Callie Dickinson (2023) garnered the prestigious H. Boyd McWhorter Scholar-Athlete of the Year Award -- the highest honor earned by a student-athlete in the SEC. Women's tennis star Dasha Vidmanova -- only the third female tennis player to win the NCAA's triple crown -- was named the 2025 recipient of the Honda Award and was the Roy F. Kramer SEC Female Athlete of the Year.

From academic and athletic success to historic fundraising and a multitude of facility projects, Brooks has continued to sustain Georgia's standing as a national powerhouse. The Georgia Bulldog Club set new fundraising records in each of the last three years with $86.4 million raised in 2022, $102 million in 2023 and $113 million in 2024.

Brooks has overseen substantial facility upgrades that include the brand-new Lindsey Hopkins Indoor Tennis Courts, improvements to the south side of Sanford Stadium, a $45 million renovation to Foley Field, a $38 million upgrade to the Jack Turner Softball Stadium, a new $1.8 million men's and women's basketball weight room as well as expansive updates to Stegeman Coliseum and a renovation project in the Butts-Mehre Heritage Hall.

Georgia also built a new, state-of-the-art track and field locker room and a one-of-a-kind track facility off South Milledge Avenue is nearing completion.

While facility upgrades have been at the forefront, Georgia's emphasis on Name, Image, and Likeness has further enhanced its commitment to the student-athlete experience. Georgia Athletics was one of the first departments to announce a comprehensive NIL program, which provides wide-ranging education, multi-media management tools and brand-building training. The Bulldogs became one of the first schools to build an in-house NIL department with an Athlete Manager to help student-athletes navigate this space.

Under his guidance, Georgia re-branded the mental health and performance department, bringing in a new full-time director and an additional clinical counselor as well as adding sports psychology services for every team.

Before returning to UGA in 2016 as Executive Associate Director of Athletics, Brooks served as Deputy Athletics Director at the University of Louisiana Monroe from 2015-16 and Director of Athletics at Millsaps College from 2014-15. He also served in capacities as Director of Football Operations (2008-11) and Assistant and Associate Athletic Director for Internal Operations (2012-14) in his previous stint at UGA.

A native of Hammond, La., Brooks also served as director of football operations at the University of Louisiana-Monroe beginning in 2004. He gained experience as a student at Louisiana State University, working as an equipment manager and a student assistant coach.

Brooks graduated from LSU ('02) with a degree in Kinesiology and completed his master's degree in Sport Management from UGA ('14). He and his wife, Lillie, have twin sons, Jackson and James, born in July of 2009 and a third son, Davis, born in March of 2012.

He and his wife Lillie have become a vital part of the Athens community. On January 20, 2021, just two weeks after becoming Athletic Director, Brooks pledged $100,000 to create a need-based scholarship to support UGA students from Athens-Clarke County. His gift created a Georgia Commitment Scholarship (GCS), adding to the more than 550 endowed, need-based scholarships created under the GCS program since its launch in January 2017.
